La Colline Des Anges:

Return to Vietnam Jean-Claude Guillebaud,1994-11-17 Two wartime correspondents return to Vietnam after twenty years to observe the changes in the country and people Photographic Travel Books Danièle Méaux,2017-07-24 Since early in its history photography has been used by a diversity of travellers whose collected photographs have been compiled into albums But Photographic Travel as a genre of art did not appear before the second half of the twentieth century and had a singular fate and fortune in the US as well as in Europe The initial objective of some itinerant photographers is to make a book their shooting practice is conditioned by this objective as well as their travel experience Their books designed as one coherent whole refer to their wandering experience even though their stories are never completely free from fiction In these books their travels are converged and their subjectivity is revealed It is therefore relevant to call such books made of photographs and possibly words about the travel experience Photographic Travel books comparably to Travel books Danièle Méaux has tackled the task of characterizing this genre

Interpersonal Encounters in Contemporary Travel Writing Catharine Mee,2015-03-01 This critical study examines the theme of interpersonal encounter in a range of late twentieth and early twenty first century travel writing written in French and Italian Structured typologically each chapter focuses on a typical activity that brings traveller protagonists into contact with other people Drawing on literary critical studies of travel writing sociological and anthropological approaches to tourism as well as research in French and Italian area studies Interpersonal Encounters in Contemporary Travel Writing locates the concept of encounter within the context of modern tourism The Riviera, Or, The Coast from Marseilles to Leghorn C.
