Lone Scherfig's Italian For Beginners Nordic Film Classics:

Lone Scherfig's Italian for Beginners Mette Hjort, 2011-09-01 Lone Scherfig was the first of a number of women directors to take up the challenge of Dogme the back to basics manifesto based rule governed and now globalized film initiative introduced by Danish filmmakers Lars von Trier and Thomas Vinterberg in 1995 Entitled Italiensk for begyndere Italian for Beginners Scherfig's Dogme film transformed this already accomplished filmmaker into one of Europe's most noteworthy women directors Danish and international critics lavished praise on Scherfig and her film and their reactions harmonized with those of festival juries Battered by life but by no means defeated or destroyed the characters in Italian for Beginners are all in touch at some deep intuitive level with the truth that is the film's basic message that happiness and a sense of self worth are sustained by love whether romantic love or that of a community of like minded people The film struck an important chord with viewers precisely because it took Dogme in a new direction one that reflects Scherfig's sensibilities and preferences as a woman The book includes the Dogme manifesto and draws on interviews with the filmmaker as well as with the cast and crew Watch the book trailer <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gk7SGfrIHGA>

A Handbook to the Reception of Classical Mythology Vanda Zajko, Helena Hoyle, 2017-03-16 A Handbook to the Reception of Classical Mythology presents a collection of essays that explore a wide variety of aspects of Greek and Roman myths and their critical reception from antiquity to the present day Reveals the importance of mythography to the survival dissemination and popularization of classical myth from the ancient world to the present day Features chronologically organized essays that address different sets of myths that were important in each historical era along with their thematic relevance Features chronologically organized essays that address different sets of myths that were important in each historical era along with their thematic relevance Offers a series of carefully selected in depth readings including both popular and less well known examples

Roy Andersson's "Songs from the Second Floor" Ursula Lindqvist, 2016-06-01 Swedish filmmaker Roy Andersson's celebrated and enigmatic film Songs from the Second Floor his first feature film in twenty five years won the Special Jury Prize at the Cannes Film Festival in 2000 The songs of the film's title refer to Andersson's artistic ruminations on the state of mankind from his office on the second floor of Studio 24 in Stockholm The film presents a series of forty six tableaux long deep focus shots with a still camera mostly in studio settings using older visual tricks such as trompe l'oeil The tableaux showcase seemingly trivial tragicomic situations designed to provoke thoughts about existential guilt broken relationships and the failure of social institutions to treat people as human beings Lindqvist draws from interviews with Andersson and his team that provide a behind the scenes look at how the film was made and investigates its philosophical and artistic influences providing a nuanced reading of a film that has both befuddled and entranced its viewers This first book length study in English of Andersson's work considers his aesthetic agenda and the unique methods that have become hallmarks of his filmmaking as well as his firm belief in film's revolutionary function as social critique Thomas Vinterberg's Festen (The Celebration) C. Claire Thomson, 2014-02-01 Danish filmmaker Thomas Vinterberg's searing film Festen The Celebration was the first film from the Dogme 95 stable Adhering to Dogme's cinematic purity no artificial lighting no superficial action no credit for the director and only handheld cameras for equipment Festen was a commercial and critical success winning the Jury Prize at Cannes in 1998 and garnering worldwide attention The film is set at the sixtieth birthday party of Helge the wealthy patriarch of a large Danish family The birthday festivities take a turn when Helge's son Christian raises a toast and denounces Helge for having raped and abused him as a child along with his twin sister who recently committed suicide The film explores the escalating consequences of Christian's announcement from the stunned dinner party's collective denial to violence to an unexpected catharsis

Lukas Moodysson's Show Me Love Anna Westerstahl Stenport, 2012-08-01 Lukas Moodysson is one of the most accomplished and unconventional filmmakers of his generation in Sweden Moodysson now well known for his English language film Mammoth 2009 as well as his heartbreaking indictment of sex trafficking in Sweden Lilya 4 Ever 2002 debuted as a writer and director while still in his twenties with Show Me Love 1998 The film received four Guldbaggar the Swedish equivalent of the Academy Awards including best film best director best screenplay and best actresses A coming of age and coming out film about two young women in a stiflingly oppressive small town Show Me Love is widely considered a youth film classic and was called a masterpiece by Ingmar Bergman This book which is the first study of Moodysson in any language includes discussions of the film's genre aesthetics and style and situates the film in both contemporary Swedish cinema and broader Swedish culture It includes sequence and dialogue analysis and discusses how and why this particular film became so important its queer significance its unusually realistic depiction of youth and its critical reception Anna Stenport conducted extensive interviews with the cast and crew including several enlightening discussions with Moodysson himself Lukas Moodysson's Show Me Love offers an incisive introduction to Moodysson for readers interested in contemporary film as well as a history and close analysis of changes in the Swedish film industry

Film and Risk Mette Hjort, 2012 The phenomenon of risk has been seriously neglected in connection with the study of film yet many of those who write about film seem to have intuitions about how various forms of risk taking shape aspects of the filmmaking or film viewing process Film and Risk fills this gap as editor Mette Hjort and interdisciplinary contributors discuss film's relation to all types of risk Bringing together scholars from philosophy anthropology film studies economics and cultural studies as well as experts from the fields of law filmmaking and photojournalism this volume discusses risk from multiple intriguing angles In thirteen chapters contributors consider concrete risks e.g. stunts or financial decisions theoretical aesthetic and artistic risks e.g. filmmakers who incorporate excessive hazards into their films and the real world jeopardy spectators might put themselves in when viewing films The first three chapters tackle the conceptual terrain that is relevant to understanding risk in film The next three chapters focus on risk as it pertains to the practice of filmmaking Subsequent chapters deal with economic risk and the role that risk has in the development of film's institutional landscape

The scholarship in this collection is impressive boasting some of the top writers in their respective fields Through the contributors clear and thorough discussions this cohesive but diverse collection shows that risk arises in many different areas that tend to be thought of as central to film studies Scholars of film studies will appreciate this daring and inventive collection and readers with a general interest in film studies will enjoy its accessible style Film Writers ,2002 Film and Risk Mette Hjort,2012-03-15 Scholars of film studies will appreciate this daring and inventive collection and readers with a general interest in film studies will enjoy its accessible style The Education of the Filmmaker in Europe, Australia, and Asia M. Hjort,2013-07-17 Practice based film education is a crucial element in the institutional landscape of film This book fills the gap in understanding practice based film scholarship focusing on Europe Asia and Australia The Education of the Filmmaker in Africa, the Middle East, and the Americas M. Hjort,2013-07-31 Using case studies from Nigeria Qatar the United States the West Indies and others the contributors to this volume examine aspects such as audience response film education for children and the impact on crime in the various studios clubs film festivals NGOs peripatetic workshops and alternative film schools where filmmaking is taught
