Degener, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2003 On June 19 1864 the United States warship Kearsarge sank the Confederate raider Alabama off the coast of Cherbourg France in one of the most celebrated naval engagements of the American Civil War When Kearsarge later anchored off the French resort town of Boulogne sur Mer it was thronged by curious visitors one of whom was the artist Edouard Manet Although he did not witness the historic battle Manet made a painting of it partly as an attempt to regain the respect of his colleagues after having been ridiculed for his works in the 1864 Salon Manet's picture of the naval engagement and his portrait of the victorious Kearsarge belong to a group of his seascapes of Boulogne whose unorthodox perspective and composition would profoundly influence the course of French painting Manet's paintings and watercolors related to the battle are considered in depth alongside numerous prints photographs letters and archival newspaper illustrations that illuminate the history of the episode and in some cases dispel lingering misconceptions Manet's other Boulogne seascapes are also discussed in terms of their complex chronology and evolution A final chapter touches on some of the sources for the seascapes from Old Master paintings to Japanese woodblock prints and traces the influence of the seascapes on such artists as Gustave Courbet James Abbott McNeill Whistler and Claude Monet

"Rival Sisters, Art and Music at the Birth of Modernism, 1815?915 " James H. Rubin, 2017-07-05 Introducing the concept of music and painting as rival sisters during the nineteenth century this interdisciplinary collection explores the productive exchange from rivalry to inspiration to collaboration between the two media in the age of Romanticism and Modernism The volume traces the relationship between art and music from the opposing claims for superiority of the early nineteenth century to the emergence of the concept of synesthesia around 1900 This collection puts forward a more complex history of the relationship between art and music than has been described in earlier works including an intermixing of models and distinctions between approaches to them Individual essays from art history musicology and literature examine the growing influence of art upon music and vice versa in the works of Berlioz Courbet Manet Fantin

Latour Rodin Debussy and the Pre Raphaelites among other artists Manet and the Family Romance Nancy Locke, 2001 douard Manet s paintings have long been recognized for being visually compelling and uniquely recalcitrant While critics have noted the presence of family members and intimates in paintings such as Le D jeuner sur l herbe Nancy Locke takes an unprecedented look at the significance of the artist s family relationships for his art Locke argues that a kind of mythology of the family or Freudian family romance frequently structures Manet s compositional decisions and choice of models By looking at the representation of the family as a volatile mechanism for the development of sexuality and of repression conflict and desire Locke brings powerful new interpretations to some of Manet s most complex works Locke considers for example the impact of a father son drama rooted in a closely guarded family secret the adultery of Manet p re and the status of L on Leenhoff Her nuanced exploration of the implications of this story that Manet in fact married his father s mistress makes us look afresh at even well known paintings such as Olympia This book sheds new light on Manet s infamous interest in gypsies street musicians and itinerants as Locke analyzes the activities of Manet s father as a civil judge She also reexamines the close friendship between Manet and the Impressionist painter Berthe Morisot who married Manet s brother Morisot becomes the subject of a series of meditations on the elusiveness of the self the transience of identity and conflicting concerns with appearances and respectability Manet and the Family Romance offers an entirely new set of arguments about the cultural forces that shaped these alluring paintings The Romance of Modernism George T. M. Shackelford, 2006 Essay by
