Manifestoes of Surrealism André Breton, 2020-07-04 A collection of both of the Manifestoes of Surrealism written by Andre Breton in 1924 and 1929 The pocket book size to make the two manifestoes more accessible in print without being Literature as an Art Form - Evolving Intermedial Literary Landscape Asunción López-Varela part of some collected works Azcárate, 2025-07-02 Literature as an Art Form Evolving Intermedial Literary Landscape brings together sixteen scholarly contributions that explore literature s ongoing transformation across media cultures and technologies This anthology traces the dynamic interplay between literature and visual sonic performative and algorithmic forms ranging from illuminated manuscripts and oral traditions to digital texts and anime Rejecting the notion of literature as a fixed verbal art the chapters highlight its status as a transmedial evolving practice shaped by and shaping the environments in which it is situated Each essay examines how literature migrates across modalities revealing it as a mutable process of techno po esis Together they offer a compelling vision of literature not as an autonomous artefact but as a fluid cultural phenomenon whose conditions of existence are inseparable from intermedial exchange The Creative Underground Paul Clements, 2016-09-13 Paul Clements champions the creative underground and expressions of difference through visionary avant garde and resistant ideas This is represented by an admixture of utopian literature manifestos and lifestyles which challenge normality and attempt to reinvent society as practiced for example by radicals in bohemian enclaves or youth subcultures He showcases a range of art and participatory cultural practices that are examined sociopolitically and historically employing key theoretical ideas which highlight their contribution to aesthetic thinking political ideology and public discourse A reevaluation of the arts and progressive modernism can reinvigorate culture through active leisure and post work possibilities beyond materialism and its constraints thereby presenting alternatives to established understandings and everyday cultural processes The book teases out the difficult relationship between the individual culture and society especially in relation to autonomy and marginality while arguing that the creative underground is crucial for a better world as it offers enchantment vitality and René Magritte and the Art of Thinking Lisa Lipinski, 2019-04-04 For Ren Magritte painting was a form of thinking hope Through paintings of ordinary objects rendered with illusionism Magritte probed the limits of our perception what we see and cannot see the nature of representation as a philosophical system for presenting ideas and explored perspective as a method of visual argumentation This book makes the claim that Magritte's painting is about vision and the act of viewing of perception itself and the process of how we see and experience things in the world including paintings as things Visual Media and Culture of 'Occupy' Pamela Odih, 2014-10-17 On 15th October 2011 hundreds of anti capitalist protestors assembled into a spectacular carnivalesque procession towards Paternoster Square the heartland of London s banking district Beginning with Althusser's concept of interpellation this book examines Occupy LSX St Paul's Cathedral in relation to media spectacle Initially focusing on arrival narratives it asks the question were the 15th October 2011 anti capitalist protestors hailed into becoming the subjects of Occupy LSX St Paul s Cathedral Based on extensive ethnographic interviews and photographic data this book demonstrates the complex ways in which Occupy LSX St Paul s Cathedral interpolated Ashcroft 2001 and subverted media spectacle Kairos exemplifies the longue dur e of the art and ethics of Occupy The bifarious dimensions of kairos emphasise an ethics of care and devotion alongside the indeterminate possibilities of the aleatory encounter Formulated within Marxist aleatory materialism this book explores the momentous reality of Occupy LSX St Paul's Cathedral Instantiated within an extraordinary conjuncture of conflict between capital and labour Occupy LSX St Paul s Cathedral manifested formidable expressions of resistance to the disembodied space of flows timeless times and the real virtualities of transnational capitalist accumulation Empirical case studies are used to engage with the extraordinary strategies that Occupy LSX St Paul s Cathedral politically cultivated to address i the future of print news media The Occupied Times of London ii disjunctures and disruptions within the locality of the space of place amidst the harsh reality of neoliberal austerity measures iii the harnessing of multi modal information communication technologies as part of an imperative to unite the space of place with an international environmental citizenship iv critically mobilising market analogues and promotional media integral to the neoliberal market reform of public sector healthcare provision and in so doing occupying a radical riposte to the entrepreneurial self and marketized morals of neoliberalism's homo economicus consumer citizen In these and many other examples this book argues that Occupy LSX St Paul s Cathedral exemplifies the possibilities of kairos as a condition and consequence of the politics visual media and culture of new social movements Posthumorism Frances McDonald, 2022-01-27 Examining the multiple non humorous meanings of laughter this book explores a unique strain of laughter in modernism that is without humor without humans and without humanism Providing a bold new theory of modernism's affects Posthumorism chronicles the scattered emergence of a particular strain of humorless laughter in twentieth century literature film and philosophy From William James s trippy experiments with laughing gas to the wide open suicide shriek of Major Kong in Stanley Kubrick's Dr Strangelove modernity is strewn with examples of such laughter defined by its ability to crack up and destroy whilst opening new horizons of perception Examining the creative operation of posthumorist laughter this book explores how various stylists of the form from Nathanael West and Kurt Vonnegut to Georges Bataille and H l ne Cixous use it as a tool to unsettle reconfigure the individual human and shape different forms of Manifestoes of Surrealism. Translated from the French by Richard Seaver and Helen R. humanist discourse Lane. (Second Printing.). André Robert BRETON,1974 Love at First Sight Arturo Schwarz, Muze'on Yiśra'el (Jerusalem),2001 The Sources of Surrealism Neil Matheson, 2006 Surrealism is a particularly complex international movement embracing both the literary and the visual arts while lacking any single visual or literary style and this together with its long existence has served to generate a very substantial body of writings poetry novels essays theoretical writings manifestoes and other documents which might be considered as fundamental to any proper understanding of the movement

The Sources of Surrealism is a comprehensive sourcebook documenting the origins and development of Surrealism internationally through a collection of 234 original documents The texts have been selected from across the whole range of Surrealist writing as well as including influential predecessors like Rimbaud and Lautreamont and contemporaries such as Raymond Roussell and Alfred Jarry Texts are published in English throughout with new translations provided for previously untranslated material The book addresses for the first time the neglected area of the relationship between Surrealism and popular culture including Surrealism's engagement with cinema and attempts to address the increased critical interest in what in the past were more neglected figures such as Michel Leiris and Georges Bataille Particular emphasis is given to the earlier documents and influences upon the Surrealist movement as well as to the period of its internationalism during the 1930s and the texts cover Surrealism in Britain and Belgium as well as France This fascinating collection presents what was most vital about this complex and often contradictory movement and serves as an essential reference book for scholars as well as stimulating reading for all those with a general interest in the subject Yves Tanguy Kristine Elaine Dolan Stiles,1976 The Autobiography of Surrealism Marcel Jean, 1980 Poets, Prophets, and Revolutionaries Charles Russell, 1985 Literair historische opstellen over stromingen en figuren over de periode ca 1880 heden from the International Conference on Myth and Fantasy, 1991 Joseph Vergara Tyler, 1994 Sweet Sweat Justine Frank, Roee Rosen, 2009-09-04 Sweet Sweat the only novel by Belgian artist Justine Frank is unusual to say the least a blend of feminism pornography Judaism and art written in French in 1931 Its heroine is a Jewish girl named Rachel born in the South of France who has an outstanding talent for debauchery and crime She takes up with the sybaritic Count Urdukas and sets out with him on an odyssey of pleasure and corruption marked by bizarre events in which horror and humor mingle This comprehensive new edition of Frank's novel includes an essay and an extensive biography by Israeli American writer and artist Roee Rosen and a timeline tracing key moments in Frank's life providing a definitive analysis of this once scandalous novel and its historical and cultural contexts As he hovered over the skinny body his nostrils were filled with the aroma of horror sweat that poured from Rachel He was swept by the scent His breathing became a guttural purr and his eyes glazed over Oh shrewd liqueur of tropical fruits Ah venomous cr me de cassis Hurrah distilled tyrannical sweetness tainted neither by a salty tint nor sour hint Never had the Count been caught by such a fire as was ignited by this sweetness a carnivorous perfume as seismic as epilepsy A smut potion worthy of the sacred nostrils of the Pope Justine Frank Sweet Sweat 1931 Roee Rosen's paintings films and writings have become known for their historical and theological consciousness novelistic imagination and psychological ambition His work addresses the representation of history the political economy of memory and the politics of identity often exploring the tension between trauma horror humor and truth Rosen was born in Rehovot Israel in 1963 and received degrees in visual art from the School of Visual Arts and Hunter College both in New York He now lives in Israel where he teaches art and art history at Bezalel Academy of Art and at Beit Berl College In 1997 Rosen s controversial exhibition Live and Die as Eva Braun at The Israel Museum Jerusalem was aggressively attacked by Israeli politicians It won critical praise however for its new approach to the representation of the memory of the Holocaust Rosen's projects include the exhibition Justine Frank 1900 1943 A Retrospective 2009 and the films Two Women and a Man 2005 and The Confessions of Roee Rosen 2008 He has authored the books A Different Face Shva 2000 Lucy Shadurian 2000 Sweet Sweat Babel 2001 and Ziona Keter 2007 Copublished with Extra City Peter Halley Arturo Schwarz, 1998 In this book Arturo Schwarz b 1924 interprets the paintings of Peter Halley one of today's leading artists from a psychoanalytic point of view He also looks at Halley's work in relation to the Cabala and alchemy The author of several important books on Surrealism and Dadaism Schwarz is known for his particular blend of critical analysis that incorporates Tantric art prehistoric and tribal art and Eastern art and philosophy As Schwarz comments For Peter Halley art attains the dimensions of a religion if we return to the original meaning of the term religio bringing together connecting that which is separated In other words on the one hand healing the fracture of one s split personality and on the other bridging the gap that separates The Avant-garde and the Margin Sanja Bahun-Radunović, Marinos Pourgouris, 2006 The collection of one from one s kin essays The Avant garde and the Margin New Territories of the Modernist Avant garde refigures the critical and historical picture of the modernist avant garde by introducing a variety of less commonly discussed geo artistic sites and dynamics The contributors explore the multifaceted relations established between the avant garde oecenters France Germany England and others and their counterparts in the cultural opperiphery Greece India Japan Poland Ouebec Romania and the former Yugoslavia as well as the unique artistic and literary dialogues which these encounters engendered The primary concern of the anthology is the set of relations established between the center and the margin the redefinition of which was pivotal for the formulation of the modernist avant garde aesthetic project itself While enriching the kaleidoscopic picture of modernism the essays in this collection also offer new methodological approaches to this polychrome cultural image In this way the collection avoids the pitfalls of both the traditional diffusionist Eurocentric model of the world and the more recent over relativization of the positions of the margin and the center In their stead the anthology proposes a hermeneutics of encounter that is simultaneously oespatial and oehistorical aware of its limits but convinced of its own necessity Self and World James A.
