The Poet as Experienter Adam Staley Groves, 2025-08-13 In The Poet as Experienter Wallace Stevens and Nonhuman Intelligence Adam Staley Groves approaches Stevens not merely as poet thinker but rather as experienter and theorist of what is today called the phenomenon UFOs Challenging both Stevens scholarship and our broader understanding of poetic consciousness the book presents a radical appraisal of Stevens's oeuvre as an extended coded testimony of contact with nonhuman intelligence Drawing from journals uncollected poems and landmark works such as Harmonium and The Necessary Angel Groves argues that Stevens's poetic evolution mirrors the psychological and spiritual trajectory of an experienter grappling with anomalous phenomena long before cognitive frameworks for such were culturally available From moths and owls to missing time and the ethics of the imagination Groves reads Stevens's work as a sustained effort to reckon with anomalous phenomena whose language has not yet come Through careful textual analysis and historical correlation Groves positions the poet within a lineage that includes Coleridge Baudelaire Kierkegaard and Nietzsche who are recast not only as theorists of the imagination but as precursors to a modern metaphysical crisis now resurfacing through the contemporary discourse on UFOs and UAPs Unidentified Anomalous Phenomena Integrating rigorous literary scholarship with insights from ufology psychology and metaphysical philosophy Groves investigates Stevens's use of abstraction the ethics of poetic imagination and the emergence of the true subject as a form of ontological rupture In doing so the book bridges the hermetic with the historical and the poetic with the paranormal

The Writing in the Stars Rodney Williamson, 2007-01-01 Born in Mexico City in 1914 writer poet and diplomat Octavio Paz won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1990 eight years before his death in 1998 The Writing in the Stars explores Paz's life and ideas by establishing a dialogue between the structure and recurring images of his major poems and the ideas of Carl Jung Although other literary critics have pointed to Jungian concepts in Paz a comprehensive study on the subject has yet to be undertaken Rodney Williamson takes up this challenge adopting a Jungian perspective to explore successive phases of Paz's poetry Williamson illustrates how archetypal images infuse Paz's early poetry and his surrealist period and shows how the circular structure of Paz's longer poems such as Piedra de sol and Blanco are based on the Eastern sacred circle or mandala a major archetype of psychic wholeness in Jung He argues that a grasp of the psychological importance of Jung's archetypes is essential to understanding the various syntheses of creative truth and existence sought by Paz at different defining moments of his career as a poet The Writing in the Stars will prove fascinating to anyone interested in Latin American literature Jungian psychology or critical theory

Mendeleev's Mandala Jessica Goodfellow, 2015 Poetry MENDELEEV'S MANDALA begins in pilgrimage and ends in pilgrimage but nowhere in between does it find a home Logic is the lodestar as these poems struggle to make sense out of chaos Jessica Goodfellow reimagines stories from the Old Testament Greek mythology and family history by invoking muses as diverse as Wittgenstein Newton the Wright Brothers and an ancient Japanese monk In the title poem

Mendeleev's periodic table sparked by fire and by trains sees the elements of the world come into focus as a geometric pattern that recalls the ancient mandalas also blueprints of an expanding universe as a whole Throughout this book Goodfellow uses and misuses mathematics cosmology biology and etymology to push the boundaries of poetic form in a manner that mimics how time and tragedy push the human form to its limits An examination of the history of clocks reveals that the human body is the ultimate clock Aging physical deterioration and the disintegration of relationships are experienced as a ratio of what can and what can't be seen the slow calamity of vision loss both literal and metaphorical Yet despite the gravity of their themes these poems are often heartbreakingly funny Vacillating wildly between the consultation of gurus monks and fortunes tellers and the chasing of reason as redemption in the face of impermanence this book is equal parts wander and wonder Welcome to the pilgrimage This book is a library whittled down to a message in a bottle Here is a poet who has boldly refused to abide to the expectations of genre but instead pushes language and form as a means of asking the most urgent questions The result is a courageous and kaleidoscopic at times tender and vulnerable exploration of motherhood and family set against the backdrops of science history religion myths and mathematics When a poet embarks on a book as myriad and borderless as this one we are gifted the rare chance to stand at the threshold of a formidable human storm And from here it is clear that Goodfellow's MENDELEEV'S MANDALA is an electric book But its lines are not limited to lightning They move more like thunder startling resonant and suddenly everywhere in the mind at once Ocean Vuong Jessica Goodfellow has a joyous intelligence and electric tongue Reading this book a first time my only regret was that I couldn't read it a second first time But then I read it a first second time and a first third You see what I'm doing I'm reading this book over and over without ever completely taking it in I think you will too And like me want only one thing from Jessica Goodfellow more Bob Hicok From the origin of the number zero to immigration to map making these poems leap dynamically between ideas and a blazing exploration of language Folding and unfolding with searing brilliance these poems reveal our human condition with a down to earth sense of humor and wonder This must read collection nourishes mind and body and opens up whole new ways of seeing the world around us Judy Halebsky      Selected Poems Phyllis Webb, 1982 Poetry distinguished by its attention to form and thought      Trauma and Race Micah L. McCreary, 2023 This book lives at the intersection of trauma race and counseling African Black Latino a x Asian and Native Indigenous Americans ALANAs experience trauma in the context of systemic institutionalized and cultural racism Any work by trauma informed professionals must take into consideration the intersection of race and trauma      Tree of inspiration Paromita Das, 2024-07-10 Tree of Inspiration is an anthology collection featuring various writers reflections and thoughts inspired by a single tree exploring the theme of inspiration from different perspectives Each writer contributes their unique interpretation delving into the profound connections between nature creativity and the human spirit The anthology offers a diverse range of voices and insights celebrating the power of inspiration and the beauty of nature through the lens of this singular tree      A
