La Mort Essai Sur La Finitude:

La mort. Essai sur la finitude Françoise Dastur, 2007-09-17 Une première version de cette réflexion a été publiée en 1994 Hatier coll Optiques destinée aux étudiants et aux lecteurs s'intéressant quelques grandes questions fondamentales Cette nouvelle version largement remaniée et augmentée est aussi une réflexion sur la mort et la finitude non pas la recherche d'un remède contre la mort ce qui domine dans la tradition philosophique occidentale mais une ouverture la mort comme destin de tout mortel un essai pour parvenir trouver dans la finitude du temps c'est-à-dire dans la mort elle-même la ressource de la vie d'une vie qui ne recule pas devant la mort mais accepte de compter avec elle Handbook of the Anthropocene Nathanaël Wallenhorst, Christoph Wulf, 2023-08-21 This Handbook is a collection of contributions of more than 300 researchers who have worked to grasp the Anthropocene this new geological epoch characterised by a modification of the conditions of habitability of the Earth for all living things in its biogeophysical and socio-political reality These researchers also sought to define a historical and prospective anthropology that integrates social economic cultural and political issues as well as of course environmental ones What are the anthropological changes needed to ensure that our human adventure will be able to continue in the Anthropocene And what are the educational and political issues involved Anthropocene is fast becoming a widely used term but thus far there has been no reference work explaining the thoughts of the greatest experts of the present day on this subject at the intersection of biogeophysical and socio-political knowledge A scientific and political concept but which is also the conceptual vehicle for conveying the scientific community's sense of concern this complex term is explained by international experts as they reflect on scientific arguments taking place in earth system science the social sciences and the humanities What these researchers from different disciplines have in common is a healthy concern for the future and how to prepare for it in the Anthropocene and also the identification of possible anthropological changes This Handbook encourages readers to immerse themselves in reflections on the human adventure through descriptions of our differing heritages and the future that is in the process of being written Death within the Text Adriana Teodorescu, 2019-03-13 The book tackles the challenging theme of death as seen through the lens of literature and its connections with history the visual arts anthropology philosophy and other fields in humanities It searches for answers to three questions what can we know about death how is death socialised and how and for which purposes is death aesthetically shaped Unlike many other publications the volume does not endorse the fallacy of over-simplifying death by seeing it either in an exclusively positive light or by reducing it to a purely literary figure Using literature's potential to stimulate critical thinking many contemporary stereotypical configurations of death and dying are debunked and many hitherto unforeseen ways in which death functions as a complex trigger of meaning-making are revealed The book proves that death is an inexhaustible source of meanings which should be understood as peremptorily plural discontinuous problematic competitive and often conflictual It offers original contributions to the field of death studies and also to literary and cultural studies French Women Philosophers

Christina Howells, 2013-04-15 This reader is the first of its kind to present the work of leading French women philosophers to an English speaking audience Many of the articles appear for the first time in English and have been specially translated for the collection Christina Howells draws on major areas of philosophical and theoretical debate including Ethics Psychoanalysis Law Politics History Science and Rationality Each section and article is clearly introduced and situated in its intellectual context The book is necessarily feminist in inspiration but draws on an unusually wide range of thinkers chosen to represent the philosophy of women rather than feminist philosophy It will be ideal for anyone coming to this area for the first time as well as those seeking to extend their understanding of French thought and Continental Philosophy Articles by the following writers are included Francoise Collin Sylviane Agacinski Catherine Chalier Luce Irigaray Francoise Proust Francoise Dastur Barbara Cassin Natalie Depraz Elisabeth de Fontenay Elisabeth Badinter Francoise Heritier Helene Cixous Monique Schneider Julia Kristeva Sarah Kofman Monique David Menard Francoise d'Eaubonne Genevieve Fraisse Michele Le Doeuff Natalie Charraud Francoise Balibar Anne Fagot Largeault Colette Guillaumin Dominique Schnapper Myriam Revault D'Allonnes Nicole Loraux Mireille Delmas Marty Blandine Kriegel Death Representations in Literature Adriana Teodorescu, 2015-01-12 If the academic field of death studies is a prosperous one there still seems to be a level of mistrust concerning the capacity of literature to provide socially relevant information about death and to help improve the anthropological understanding of how culture is shaped by the human condition of mortality Furthermore the relationship between literature and death tends to be trivialized in the sense that death representations are interpreted in an over aestheticized manner As such this approach has a propensity to consider death in literature to be significant only for literary studies and gives rise to certain persistent clichés such as the power of literature to annihilate death This volume overcomes such stereotypes and reveals the great potential of literary studies to provide fresh and accurate ways of interrogating death as a steady and unavoidable human reality and as an ever continuing socio cultural construction The volume brings together researchers from various countries the USA the UK France Poland New Zealand Canada India Germany Greece and Romania with different academic backgrounds in fields as diverse as literature art history social studies criminology musicology and cultural studies and provides answers to questions such as What are the features of death representations in certain literary genres Is it possible to speak of an homogeneous vision of death in the case of some literary movements How do writers perceive imagine and describe their death through their personal diaries or how do they metabolize the death of the significant others through their writings To what extent does the literary representation of death refer to the extra fictional socio historically constructed Death Is it moral to represent death in children's literature What are the differences and similarities between representing death in literature and death representations in other connected fields Are metaphors and literary representations of death forms of death denial or on the contrary a more insightful way of capturing the meaning of death Gadamer's Hermeneutics and the Art of Conversation Andrzej Wierciński, 2011 Gadamer's Hermeneutics and the Art of Conversation covers the nature of dialogue and understanding in Hans Georg Gadamer's linguistically oriented hermeneutics and its relevance for contemporary philosophy. This timely collection of essays stresses the fundamental significance of the other for a further development of Heidegger's analytics of Dasein. By recognizing the priority of the other over oneself, Gadamerian hermeneutics founds a culture of dialogue sorely needed in our multi-cultural globalized community. The essays solicited for this volume are presented in three thematic blocks: Hermeneutic Conversation, Hermeneutics, Aesthetics and Transcendence, Hermeneutic Ethics, Education and Politics. The volume proposes a dynamic understanding of hermeneutics as putting into practice the art of conversation.

The Labour of Subjectivity Andrea Rossi, 2015-11-30
 Michel Foucault defined critique as an exercise in de-subjectivation. To what extent did this claim shape his philosophical practice? What are its theoretical and ethical justifications? Why did Foucault come to view the production of subjectivity as a key site of political and intellectual emancipation in the present? Andrea Rossi pursues these questions in The Labour of Subjectivity. The book re-examines the genealogy of the politics of subjectivity that Foucault began to outline in his lectures at the Collège de France in the late 1970s and early 1980s. He explores Christian confession, reason d'état biopolitics and bioeconomy as the different technologies by which Western politics has attempted to produce, regulate and give form to the subjectivity of its subjects. Ultimately, Rossi argues that Foucault's critical project can only be comprehended within the context of this historico-political trajectory as an attempt to give the extant politics of the self a new horizon.

The Origins of Life Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-03-09
 Life appears ungraspable yet its understanding lies at the heart of current preoccupations. In our attempt to understand life through its origins, the ambition of the present collection is to unravel the network of the origin of the various spheres of sense that carry it onwards. The primogenital matrix of generation, Tymieniecka elaborated as the fulcrum of this collection, elucidates the main riddles of the scientific, philosophical controversies concerning the status of various spheres that seek to make sense of life.

Pour une éthique de la "visibilité" dans l'invisible Lambert Nieme, 2006-10-01
 L'auteur dans son essai labore une thique de la visibilit dans l invisible traduction du souci universel de laisser une trace apr s sa mort v ritable succ dan une illusoire immortalit Ce d sir de visibilit soul ve des questions la fois morales m taphysiques et scientifiques aux enjeux politiques cologiques et civilisationnels capitaux.

Life Interpretation and the Sense of Illness Within the Human Condition Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, Evandro Agazzi, 2001-09-30
 In medicine the understanding and interpretation of the complex reality of illness currently refers either to an organismic approach that focuses on the physical or to a holistic approach that takes into account the patient's human sociocultural involvement. Yet as the papers of this collection show, the suffering human person refers ultimately to his/her existential sphere. Hence praxis is supplemented by still other perspectives for valuation and interpretation: ethical, spiritual and religious. Can medicine ignore these considerations or push them to the side as being subjective and arbitrary? Phenomenology/philosophy of life recognizes all of the above approaches to be essential facets of the Human Condition.

Tymieniecka This approach holds that all the facets of the Human Condition have equal objectivity and legitimacy It completes the accepted medical outlook and points the way toward a new medical humanism Philosophie ,2008
