Murphy's. Revisited J. D. Rule, 2014-11-16 I was not expecting anybody that evening so to find MaryEllen pounding on my door was a huge surprise She did not look happy Samantha told me what you've been writing She elbowed me aside threw her coat off dropped down on my couch and glared up at me What's this she snickered Don't you even have the decency to invite me in The look she gave me said she was expecting something more What have I been writing I pulled two glasses down and yanked the cork on a Malbec To merit such a visit as this Do I really have to relive that time She drew a deep breath I mean Each of us has our own backstory I laughed Roger did all right by you didn't he Don't you dare say did I looked up with a scowl startled by the way she said that He's never stopped doing it she continued returning my look and swirling her glass Please she added if you really must be writing about Roger and me ditch the past tense Sorry I said So what's Samantha's beef Same deal as mine She knows what she did and she knows what Arnie did Those days are all behind them Only now you're dredging up old stuff The way she spoke it sounded like an indictment Hey I said both you guys should be proud Look where you are now No thanks to you Did I ask for thanks And you won't even let us close our damn bedroom doors That stuff's just part of life I scoffed You got nothing to be ashamed of Neither of you Exactly when did I say I was ashamed She looked up with a scowl Don't you go stuffing words in my mouth Getting a mite testy are we I refilled both of our glasses You You and Samantha You both ended up with guys who think the world of you Isn't that the way it's supposed to be You could at least thank me for that much By the way she added That part only works when it swings both ways That's what Sammy thinks too You're saying I didn't write it like that There you go again So what is it I asked her that you women want out of this Don't you know I believe I do I chuckled but I'd rather hear it from you It's not so tough she said sitting back on the couch and looking at me over the top of her glass I want a strong man who can accept me as his equal and treat me that way who at least tries to understand my needs and is sincere about meeting them Like Roger Yeah she said with a smile Like Roger
