My Amazing American Journey:

Patriot on the Kennebec Mark A. York, 2012-02-17 In late 1775 a few months after the first shots of the Revolution were fired Benedict Arnold led more than one thousand troops into Quebec to attack the British there Departing from Massachusetts by the time they reached Pittston Maine they were in desperate need of supplies and equipment to carry them the rest of the way Many patriotic Mainers contributed including Major Reuben Colburn who constructed a flotilla of bateaux for the weary troops Despite his service in the Continental army many blamed Colburn when several of the vessels did not withstand the harsh journey In this narrative the roles played by Colburn and his fellow Mainers in Arnold's march are reexamined and revealed The Amazing Law of Influence Duncan, King, 2010-09-23 You have heard about it in Pay It Forward you've heard about it in Six Degrees of Separation but no single author has given as much consideration to the laws of influence as King Duncan does here This reader friendly book looks at chaos theory how small changes can trigger monumental transformations The example of this theory most often cited is that of Edward Lorenz who discovered in the 1960s that the tiniest movement in the air in one part of the world can produce dramatic changes in weather patterns months later in another part of the world Thus a butterfly flapping its wings in Malibu might set into motion a series of events that could produce a monsoon months later in Malaysia The Law of Influence states that one life touches another and potentially both lives are changed through this change potentially the entire world is changed Even chance events a smile a word spoken at just the right moment or even people like John Howard who helped a young English journalist return home The young journalist was Winston Churchill and the rest is history More important than explaining what the law of influence is this book explains how individuals can use it to create a life worth living and to share the lessons to create families and communities that work together for the greater good Together people aware of and involved with their own influence on others have the potential to make amazing things happen King Duncan is a professional speaker and author of two other books Amazing Grace Humor to Heal Mind Soul and Body and The One Minute Motivator In 1993 he was the national winner of the International Platform Association's prestigious Speaker's Ladder Award He lives in Knoxville Tennessee where he owns and manages his communications company Seven Worlds Corporation
