

My Best Holiday Celebration

5 pages | 1168 words

Syria is a mixture of cultures , it combines between Christians and Muslims , as 30% of the population is Christians and the rest is Muslims ; people in this country celebrate together the same holiday festivities whereas Christians have many holiday celebrations such as the head of the year , and Muslims have two per a year such as ead feter and ead adha . And one of the best holiday celebrations ever was ead feter which we celebrate it for many reasons. One major reason of this holiday is to break the fast after thirty days without eating from the sunrise till sunset . And during this thirty days , people sit together sharing a large dinner then they watch many series and competitive programs on the TV . Moreover , most of them stay awake till evening telling each other stories and comics , and as Islamic people share the celebration of the head of the year with Christians , also Christians people share the dinner and the celebration with them. Furthermore , the important part of this celebration is the communication between families, whereas after this thirty days all the members of every family should visit each other, and across the generations the older instructs the younger , and the younger enlivens the older.

In the same way , even who are unconnected by blood they should at least call each other on the phone and say hello , such as friends or neighbors. Another reason is to remind rich people to donate the poor people by many ways . For instance , there is something called Zakat which is mean that people should donate 2.7% of their money account for poor people by hand instead of philanthropic organization .In addition, neighbors exchange each other (rich people to poor people) the food they made to make close relations gather together. Other important reasons exist , but in conclusion ,I can tell from this celebration that the familiarity and the intimacy between all the members of the society such as friends, even different religions , families , and neighbors all in all can be stronger and closer much more than any days during the year.

My Lady Nicotine a book that suggests but is very unlike The Reveries of a Bachelor The former is urban the latter is provincial A briar pipe filled with Arcadia Mixture starts the reveries in the one a hearth fire in the other The five bachelors in My Lady Nicotine seem to be utterly dissimilar in tastes and feelings and have only one bond of union their common love for the famous Arcadia Mixture The solemnity with which they treat their pipes their assured superiority to everybody outside of the circle which knows and appreciates that mysterious brand of tobacco the sentimental selfishness of their bachelor existence and the delicate humor with which the quiet episodes are narrated these are some of the charming qualities of the book But the crowning humor of it is that the story is told by one of their number who boldly announces in the first chapter that he has married and his wife has won him from his pipe and his comrades He cheaply moralizes on their enslavement and then in reveries calls up the happy days when he smoked with them The closing chapter is a most subtle piece of writing The narrator praises his constancy to his promise never to smoke again and adds I have not even any craving for the Arcadia now though it is a tobacco that should only be smoked by our greatest men Then he confesses that when his wife is asleep and all the house is still he sits with his empty briar in his mouth and listens to the taps of a pipe in the hands of a smoker whom he
