La Part Du Mort:

Mediterranean Crime Fiction Barbara Pezzotti, 2023-11-23 By exploring the transcultural nature of Mediterranean crime fiction Barbara Pezzotti advocates for a regional reading of the genre The Extreme In-between (politics and Literature) Anna-Louise Milne, 2017-12-02 Frequently referred to as the eminence grise of French literature in the interwar years Jean Paulhan 1884 1968 was not just the editor responsible for giving writers as varied as Francis Ponge and Jean Paul Sartre their first start in the pages of the renowned Nouvelle Revue Française He also produced a substantial body of work of astonishing eclecticism From dense quasi scientific texts on poetic language where his critical expertise in contemporary linguistics and psychology is abundantly apparent to enigmatic recits which often seem closer to prose poems than anything else he explored and exploited a vast range of discourses and artistic practices from the Marquis de Sade's early works to Picasso's still lifes Yet all his explorations were governed by a primary and unflinching concern to understand what literature owes society In a series of tightly orchestrated readings Anna Louise Milne brings to light the space he sought to carve out between the art for art's sake ethos and the subordination of art to political ends thereby establishing more clearly Jean Paulhan's place in the twentieth century The Origins of Life Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-03-09 Life appears ungraspable yet its understanding lies at the heart of current preoccupations In our attempt to understand life through its origins the ambition of the present collection is to unravel the network of the origin of the various spheres of sense that carry it onwards The primogenital matrix of generation Tymieniecka elaborated as the fulcrum of this collection elucidates the main riddles of the scientific philosophical controversies concerning the status of various spheres that seek to make sense of life Violent Beginnings Lucie Knight-Santos, 2014-10-24 From a colonial campaign that was envisioned by France as the redemption of its Algerian children through Western civilization to Algerian Independence that was lived by both parties as a bloody divorce recent Algerian history has been imagined and represented in terms of the family Prominent authors such as Kateb Yacine and Mouloud Mammeri pondered their own fate during the War of Independence as the mixed children of a failed colonial marriage Contemporary postcolonial authors such as Rachid Boudjedra Yasmina Salah and Arezki Mellal have filled their narratives with orphaned children searching for ideal parents as a civil war ripped Algeria apart in the 1990s Violent Beginnings Literary Representations of Postcolonial Algeria explores how violence during the War of Independence 1954 1962 to the more recent civil war 1991 2002 has shaped literary representations of both family and nation in contemporary literature For example discussions of the struggle for independence in Assia Djebar's La femme sans sépulture and Ahlam Mostaghanemi's Memory of the Flesh represent sexual torture associated with this earlier war period as having a negative impact on victims' ability to have children and contribute to the development of the Algerian nation Texts examining the more recent civil war such as Rachid Boudjedra's La vie l'endroit and Yasmina Salah's Glass Nation establish a link between the earlier violence of the independence struggle and contemporary events Additionally these texts proceed to demonstrate how violence has shaped familial and national structures more specifically causing distorted familial bonds and political chaos in contemporary Algerian society The Jesuit Relations and Allied Documents Jesuits, 1897
