Report Ontario. Department of Public Records and Archives, 1920 Annual Report International Hydrographic Bureau, 1928 Psychoanalysis Under Nazi Occupation Laura Sokolowsky, 2021-09-30 Laura Sokolowsky's survey of psychoanalysis under Weimar and Nazism explores how the paradigm of a psychoanalysis for all became untenable as the Nazis rose to power. Mainly discussing the evolution of the Berlin Institute during the period between Freud's creation of free psychoanalytic centres after the founding of the Weimar Republic and the Nazi seizure of power in 1933, the book explores the ideal of making psychoanalysis available to the population of a shattered country after World War I and charts how the Institute later came under Nazi control following the segregation and dismissal of Jewish colleagues in the late 1930s. The book shows how Freudian standards resisted the medicalisation of psychoanalysis for purposes of adaptation and normalisation but also follows Freud's distinction between sacrifice where you know what you have given up and concession, an abandonment of position through compromise to demonstrate how German psychoanalysts put themselves at the service of the fascist master in the hope of obtaining official recognition and material rewards. Discussing the relations of psychoanalysis with politics and ethics as well as the origin of the Lacanian movement as a response to the institutionalisation of psychoanalysis during the Nazi occupation, this book is fascinating reading for scholars and practitioners of psychoanalysis working today Bulletin International Česká akademie věd a umění, Prague, 1901

Jorge Semprun Ursula Tidd, 2017-12-02 The Spanish Communist exile and Francophone Holocaust writer Jorge Semprun 1923 is a major contributor to contemporary debates on the politics and ethics of remembering the Franco era. Communism and the Holocaust in French, Spanish and broader European contexts. His sophisticated literary testimonies have become landmark texts not least for their commitment to represent the lived experience of history. In this first detailed study in English of Jorge Semprun's writing, Ursula Tidd shows how Semprun explores the parameters of self-writing as an address to the other in a richly intertextual corpus which weaves together history, fiction and auto-bio thanatography and gives voice to the traumatic experiences of geographical and political exile and concentration camp internment.
