

IAS 38 Application in LG Electronics Financial Statements

1. Introduction

This report provides an in-depth analysis of how IAS 38 is applied in the financial statements of LG Electronics. IAS 38 deals with the recognition, measurement, and amortization of intangible assets. This report examines the company's treatment of goodwill, industrial property rights, development costs, membership rights, and other intangible assets.

2. Recognition and Measurement of Intangible Assets

According to the financial statements, intangible assets are recognized when they meet the definition outlined in IAS 38. LG Electronics classifies intangible assets into several categories including goodwill, industrial property rights, development costs, and others. Each of these categories follows specific amortization and impairment procedures, as discussed below.

3. Analysis of Intangible Assets (2023)

The chart below shows the acquisition cost, accumulated amortization and impairment, and net book value for intangible assets as of December 31, 2023. It highlights how different types of intangible assets are measured and the extent of amortization and impairment.
