

A marching band is captured in motion during a beer festival parade. The band members are wearing traditional Bavarian attire, including dark leather lederhosen with ornate gold embroidery on the suspenders and pockets, green vests, white shirts, and white knee-high socks with green and white striped bands at the top. They are playing large brass instruments, likely euphoniums or tubas. The scene is set outdoors on a paved street under bright sunlight, with shadows cast on the ground. In the background, other parade participants and festival structures are visible.
