

■ LA RELATION SALARIALE, UNE RELATION INSTITUTIONNALISÉE

Ce n'est pas une simple relation d'échange d'une marchandise, construite spontanément à travers négociations sociales et négociations collectives qui s'appuient sur le rôle d'arbitrage de l'État et se débrouillent sur le terrain du contrat de travail.

La fixation des niveaux de salaires est déterminée dans le cadre des conventions collectives de branches signées entre les représentants des salariés et des employeurs. Ces conventions prévoient le plus souvent des conditions minimales de rémunération, des grilles de qualification et des salaires et des niveaux d'emplois (niveau de travail, temps, temps). Ces textes doivent respecter les dispositions prévues par la loi et fixées par le pouvoir politique. La mise en œuvre de l'État consiste en premier à fixer le SMIC et à déterminer ses modes de renouvellement. Ce salaire n'est pas le produit d'un arbitrage économique réalisé par le marché, arbitrage politique et social. Les auteurs néoconservateurs tendent à réduire le salaire minimum responsable de la persistance du chômage partiel et de la dégradation des salaires d'équilibre, et ne parviennent pas à l'emploi de toutes les unités d'œuvre disponibles.

L'encadrement de la relation salariale par le pouvoir politique diffère selon les pays, certains n'ont pas de salaire minimum et leur marché du travail est très flexible. D'autres ont mis en place face au chômage et à la précarité des mécanismes qui tendent à augmenter la souplesse dans l'ajustement et les licenciements. Il s'agit de marchés du travail avec la garantie pour les salariés d'une sécurité des revenus et d'une rémunération professionnelle facilitée. Dans d'autres pays, les pouvoirs publics ont agi sur la durée du travail, le temps de travail étant une des dimensions importantes de la relation salariale. La question de la relation salariale, point de focalisation majeur dans le champ de la négociation et de la régulation entre les partenaires sociaux. Certains se concentrent sur les salaires et la part sociale et l'encadrement de l'État dans les procédures de négociation n'efface pas les enjeux de rapport de forces qui sous-tendent la question salariale. La présence d'un cadre institutionnel modifie les stratégies des acteurs sociaux dans un sens, qui, globalement, facilite le dialogue social.
