The Archaeological Identity of the Mutapa State Innocent Pikirayi, 1993 The Historical Study of African Religion
Terence O. Ranger, T. O. Ranger, Isaria N. Kimambo, 1976 The Historical Dimensions of Democracy and Human Rights in Zimbabwe
Ngwabi Bhebe, T. O. Ranger, 2001 The Historical Dimensions of Democracy and Human Rights in Zimbabwe: Pre-colonial and colonial legacies Ngwabi Bhebe, Terence O. Ranger, T. O. Ranger, 2001 This volume explores the prehistory of human rights in Zimbabwe. It asks whether there are democratic legacies from pre-colonial polities and what limitations then existed on human rights. It also asks what colonialism contributed to the discourse of human rights and democracy despite its denial of both to Africans. Contents: pre-colonial states of Central Africa as embodiments of despotic culture; archaeological evidence of political structures; democracy and traditional political structure 1890-1999; imperialism and settler hypocrisy and double standards; and the denial of human rights; black elite responses to ideologies of democracy; the law courts in Rhodesia; interaction between white and black trade unionism and the Build a Nation campaign 1961-62. African Heritage and the New Africa Phares Mukasa Mutibwa, 1977 Continuity and Change Gilbert Pwiti, 1996 The Political Legacy of Colonialism in Zimbabwe Everisto Benyera, 2024-11-18 This book investigates the political legacy of colonialism in contemporary African institutions. Using the case study of electoral and justice institutions in post-colonial Zimbabwe, the book explores how those in post-colonial states relate to and with institutions initially designed to oppress them and remain structurally and systematically colonial. The book argues that the colonial era colonised the land, knowledge, and minds of Africans, resulting in injustice and epistemicides. The book demonstrates how the critical institutions of elections and justice have been rendered anti-black and toxic. The book calls for Africa to invest in epistemic independence, unencumbered by Western political modernity, and then deploy that independence to build reconstituted institutions, structures, and systems that serve the interests of Africans. This book will be an important read for African policymakers and researchers working on African politics, governance, and international relations.

An Archaeology of Land Ownership Maria Relaki, Despina Catapoti, 2013-10-23 Within archaeological studies, land tenure has been mainly studied from the viewpoint of ownership. A host of studies has argued about land ownership on the basis of the simple co-existence of artefacts on the landscape. Other studies have tended to extrapolate land ownership from more indirect means. Particularly noteworthy is the tendency to portray land ownership as the driving force behind the emergence of social complexity, a primordial ingredient in the processes that led to the political and economic expansion of prehistoric societies. The association between people and land in all of these interpretive schemata is, however, less easy to detect analytically. Although various rubrics have been employed to identify such a connection, most notable among them are the concepts of cultures, regions, or even households. They take the links between land and people as a given and not as something that needs to be conceptually defined and empirically substantiated. An Archaeology of Land Ownership demonstrates that the relationship between people and land in the past is first and foremost an analytical issue and one that calls for clarification not only at the level of definition but also methodological applicability Bringing together an international roster of specialists the essays in this volume call attention to the processes by which links to land are established the various forms that such links take and how they can change through time as well as their importance in helping to forge or dilute an understanding of community at various circumstances

Myths and Rituals Vengesai Chiminingo, 2019-08-09 Myths and rituals in Zion Christian Church ZCC of Samuel Mutendi in Zimbabwe is a book that comes as a result of my thesis from the University of South Africa UNISA The two religious phenomena myths and rituals are presented in the light of the Zionists own testimonies It is argued in this book that a lot of beliefs and practices in the ZCC are adapted and adopted from Karanga religiosity and lifestyle The book explained the critical role played by myths and rituals in the origins and development of the ZCC of Samuel Mutendi in Zimbabwe As we read throughout this book we are going to see that myths and rituals are treated as two sides of the same coin in the ZCC worldview The relationship between the two is thus inseparable Among the members of ZCC myths and rituals grow pari passu that is at the same time In this case we can see that in the ZCC ecclesiastical worldview myths and rituals are of equal importance not only in theory but also in practice Indeed they act as nectar that attracts a lot of people to join the ZCC since the two have a therapeutic value

Routledge Handbook of

Counterterrorism and Counterinsurgency in Africa Usman A. Tar, 2021-01-28 This book illustrates how Africa's defence and security domains have been radically altered by drastic changes in world politics and local ramifications. First, the contributions of numerous authors highlight the transnational dimensions of counterterrorism and counterinsurgency in Africa and reveal the roles played by African states and regional organisations in the global war on terror. Second, the volume critically evaluates the emerging regional architectures of countering terrorism, insurgency and organised violence on the continent through the African Union Counterterrorism Framework (AU CTF) and Regional Security Complexes (RSC). Third, the book sheds light on the counterterrorism and counterinsurgency (CT COIN) structures and mechanisms established by specific African states to contain, degrade and eliminate terrorism, insurgency and organised violence on the continent, particularly the successes, constraints and challenges of the emerging CT COIN mechanisms. Finally, the volume highlights the entry of non-state actors such as civil society volunteer groups, private security companies and defence contractors into the theatre of counterterrorism and counterinsurgency in Africa through volunteerism, community support for state-led CT COIN Operations and civil-military cooperation (CIMIC). This book will be of use to students and scholars of security studies, African studies, international relations and terrorism studies, and to practitioners of development, defence, security and strategy.
