My Descent Into Death A Second Chance At Life:

My Descent Into Death Howard Storm, 2005-02-15 Not since Betty Eadie's Embraced by the Light has a personal account of a Near Death Experience (NDE) been so utterly different from most others or nearly as compelling. This is a book you devour from cover to cover and pass on to others. This is a book you will quote in your daily conversation. Storm was meant to write it and we were meant to read it from the foreword by Anne Rice. In the thirty years since Raymond Moody's Life After Life appeared, a familiar pattern of NDEs has emerged: suddenly floating over one's own body usually in a hospital setting, then a sudden hurtling through a tunnel of light toward a presence of love. Not so in Howard Storm's case. Storm, an avowed atheist, was awaiting emergency surgery when he realized that he was at death's door. Storm found himself out of his own body, looking down on the hospital room scene below. Next, rather than going toward the light, he found himself being torturously dragged to excruciating realms of darkness and death where he was physically assaulted by monstrous beings of evil. His description of his pure terror and torture is unnerving in its utter originality and convincing detail. Finally drawn away from death and transported to the realm of heaven, Storm met angelic beings as well as the God of Creation. In this fascinating account, Storm tells of his life review, his conversation with God, even answers to age-old questions such as why the Holocaust was allowed to take place. Storm was sent back to his body with a new knowledge of the purpose of life here on earth. This book is his message of hope.

My Descent into Death Howard Storm, 2012-07-09 For years Howard Storm lived the American dream. He had a fine home, a family, and a successful career as an Art Professor and painter. Then, without warning, he found himself in hospital in excruciating pain, awaiting an emergency operation. He realised with horror that his death was a real possibility, but as an atheist he was convinced that his demise would mark the end of consciousness. Storm was totally unprepared for what was to happen next. He found himself out of his body, staring at his own physical form. But this was no hallucination; he was fully aware and felt more alive than ever before. In his spirit form, Storm was drawn into fearsome realms of darkness and death where he experienced the terrible consequences of a life of selfishness and materialism. However, his journey also took him into regions of light where he conversed with angelic beings and the Lord of Light Himself, who sent him back to live on earth with a message of love. My Descent into Death is Howard Storm's full story from his near-death experience in Paris to his full recovery back home in the States and the subsequent transformation of his life. Storm also communicates what he learned in his conversations with heavenly spiritual beings, revealing how the world will be in the future, the real meaning of life, what happens when we die, the role of angels, and much more. What he has to say will challenge those who believe that human awareness ends with death.

"Almost There" Walking through the Valley Jack Weitzel, 2018-06-25 Just a few moments before his death, my father looked straight ahead and with a calm voice said to me, "Almost there." It has been 20 years since his homeward journey, and I have been haunted by those words. What was he seeing that we couldn't see? In my career as a surgeon and a witness for Christ, I have observed many deaths when the last moments were calm and unafraid Four years as a hospice volunteer brought me even more intimate with those last moments I think that the valley David wrote of could also represent moments of extreme circumstances in our lives when we are in the Shadow of death an automobile accident with severe injuries the sudden loss of a child or spouse the loss of a career a consuming fire a devastating flood the birth of a stillborn Do you have the Good Shepherd to guide you through these times We only have this moment this breath Tomorrow is not promised to anyone Do you have the peace of God that surpasses all understanding Are you ready to walk through the valleys of your life Come with me as I walk through the valley of the hospice and witness the grace and comfort that only God can provide for us Journey with me and meet my Lord There will be stops along the way as we see how the world deals with the valley I pray that this book might be a life changing experience for you as we journey to Almost there My Descent Into Death Howard Storm,2008 A Howard Storm s full story from his near death experience in Paris to his full recovery back home in the States and the subsequent transformation of his life It also communicates what he learned in his conversations with heavenly spiritual beings revealing how the world will be in the future what happens when we die and the role of angels Thinking About It Steven H.
