By the middle of the nineteenth century Lowell Mason 1792-1872 was probably the most famous native born musician in America. Concentrating almost exclusively on vocal music he built a spectacular reputation as a choir director and teacher. He published many collections of sacred music that sold in unprecedented numbers and made him a household name. In 1837 he traveled to Europe on a little publicized trip. This was a bold move decades before such trips by American musicians became commonplace and his diaries from this time are a primary source of information on early nineteenth century European music. This edition of Mason's 1837 journal has been carefully edited throughout. Broyles has attempted to reproduce the original manuscript faithfully making adjustments only
