Worship Music and Culture John R. DeValve,2020 Music is an exciting aspect of African cultures south of the Sahara abounding in creativity and full of life and movement Christian worship music was added to the music mix by missionaries from Europe and North America in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and it has retained much of its Western flavor This book is a case study of the African Christian community among the Songhai and its worship music Drawing on extensive research conducted over a six year period the author explains the relationships between music culture and worship using the Songhai church as a case study In the process he builds a model for further research and experimentation in the worship of other Christian communities Included in the discussion are insights from the disciplines of ethno musicology worship study anthropology theology missiology and history Publisher

Pictures of Music Education Estelle R. Jorgensen,2011-05-23 Estelle R Jorgensen s latest work is an exploratory look into the ways we practice and represent music education through the metaphors and models that appear in everyday life These metaphors and models serve as entry points into a deeper understanding of music education that moves beyond literal ways of thinking and doing and allows for a more creative embodiment of musical thought Seeing the reader as a partner in the creation of meaning Jorgensen intends for this book to be experienced by rather than dictated to the reader Jorgensen s hope is that the intersections of art and philosophy and metaphor and model can provide a richer and more imaginative view of music education
