Mara and Dann Doris Lessing, 1999 Doris Lessing s compelling new novel of a drought plaqued future takes readers inside the heart and soul of a truly memorable heroine one whose struggle for survival cannot extinguish her passion for Mara and Dann Doris Lessing, 2009-10-13 Thousands of years in the future seven year old Mara and her brother Dann are abducted in the middle of the night Raised among hostile Rock people they eventually join the great migration north away from the draught that is turning the land to desert Trekking across a barren countryside Mara and Dann move through a diversity of peoples and places and survive many hazardous adventures Mara s mind is as restless as her feet as she hungers for answers Who are my parents Where do I come from What will we find up north With an unquenchable thirst to learn and a compassionate nature that survives despite all odds Mara is one of Lessing s greatest heroines Mara and Dann by Doris Lessing Aileen Kelly, 2001 Story of General Dann and Mara's Daughter, Griot and the Snow Dog Doris Lessing, 2005 In her visionary novel Mara and Dann published in 1999 Doris Lessing introduced us to a brother and sister battling through a future landscape where the climate is much changed colder than ever before in the north and unbearably dry and hot in the south In this new novel the odyssey continues Dann is grown up now hunting for knowledge and despondent over the inadequacies of his civilization traveling with his friend a snow dog who brings him back from the depths of despair And we meet Mara's daughter and Griot with the green eyes an abandoned child soldier who in this strange and captivating adventure discovers the meaning of love and the ability to sing stories Like its predecessor this brilliant new novel from one of our greatest living writers explains as much about the world we now live in as it does about the future we may be heading toward Mara und Dann Doris Lessing, 2004 The Story of General Dann and Mara's Daughter, Griot and the Snow Dog Doris Lessing, 2007 The earth's climate has changed it is colder than ever before and Dann is now a general and the man to whom everyone looks for guidance and leadership Lessing's new novel charts his adventures across the frozen wastes of the north Women's Utopian and Dystopian Fiction Sharon R. Wilson, 2014-07-18 Women's Utopian and Dystopian Fiction explores the genres of utopian and dystopian recent fiction It is about how this literature of both imagined perfection and disaster creates new worlds and critiques gender roles traditions and values Essays range in subject matter from Charlotte Perkins Gilman P D James Joanna Russ and Marge Piercy to Ursula Le Guin Fay Weldon and Toni Morrison Two of the three sections focus on Doris Lessing and Margaret Atwood Examining especially the twentieth century including second wave feminism writers from Tunisia Turkey Italy Korea the US and England give both an historical and a global perspective Utopian and dystopian elements are explored in the Nobel Prize winning Doris Lessing's Memoirs of a Survivor the little known Mara and Dann and The Cleft and new perspectives are offered on Atwood s The Handmaid s Tale Law and the Humanities: Cultural Perspectives Chiara Battisti, Sidia Fiorato, 2019-12-02 This volume investigates interdisciplinary intersections between law and the humanities from the

Renaissance to the present day It allows for fruitful encounters between different disciplines from literature to science from the visual arts to the post human from the postmodern novel s experimentation to most recent approaches towards the legal interpretation of literary texts This productive dialogue fosters original perspectives in the interpretation of and reflection upon identity justice power and human rights and values thus underlining the role of literature in the articulation of relevant cultural issues pertaining to specific periods Dystopias and Utopias on Earth and Beyond Douglas A. Vakoch, 2021-04-29 Caught as we are in a grave climate crisis that seems more irreversible with every passing year our literary portrayals of the future often feature the dystopian collapse of the world as we know it Science fiction explores how we got here while pointing toward a more hopeful path forward From an ecofeminist perspective a core cause of our current ecological catastrophe is the patriarchal domination of nature playing out in parallel with the oppression of women As an alternative to dystopian futures that seem increasingly inevitable ecofeminist science fiction helps us conjure utopias that promote environmental sustainability based on more egalitarian human relationships Dystopias and Utopias on Earth and Beyond Feminist Ecocriticism of Science Fiction explores the fictional worlds of such canonical novelists as Margaret Atwood Octavia Butler Ursula K Le Guin Doris Lessing and Joan Slonczewski as well as those of lesser known science fiction writers as they collectively probe humanity s greatest existential threats Contributors from five continents provide compelling analyses of far future dystopias on Earth that are all too easy to imagine becoming reality if humankind s current trajectory continues as well as provocative insights into science fiction utopias set on idyllic planets orbiting distant stars which offer liberatory alternatives that might someday be actualized in the real world By examining the links between the destruction of the environment and the domination of women Dystopias and Utopias on Earth and Beyond provides the tools to counteract those intertwined oppressions helping create a foundation for a truly habitable world The Novel in Transition: Space, Identity, and the Politics of Transformation Selin Şencan, Barış Ağır, Gözde Pınar Bilginer, Mehmet Kerim Balkan, Sinem Capar İleri, Yöntem Kılkış, Selenay Sıla Saldır, Beriyan Ayık, 2025-03-19 In contemporary fiction shifting identities contested spaces and sociopolitical ruptures are central concerns reflecting the broader crises of migration ecological displacement posthumanism and gendered spatial politics The Novel in Transition examines these intersections of space identity and power offering critical insights into how novels engage with the changing landscapes of selfhood and spatiality Building on theoretical approaches in geocriticism feminist theory and postcolonial studies this volume explores how fiction constructs and deconstructs subjectivities within fluid geographies It traces the evolving narratives of transformation that define contemporary literature from nomadic resistance in dystopian landscapes to the contested terrains of diaspora and belonging By engaging with these pressing issues this book positions fiction as both a theoretical framework and a mode of empirical analysis illustrating its role in shaping new imaginaries of identity and space in an era of unprecedented global change Doris Lessing Newsletter ,2000 Mara et Dann Doris Lessing, 2001 Doris Lessing imagine la vie sur terre apr s qu

Myths and Fairy Tales in Contemporary Women's Fiction Sharon Rose Wilson, 2008-08-15 Myths and Fairy Tales in Contemporary Women's Fiction explores contemporary feminist postmodernist and postcolonial women writers use and revisions of fairy tales and myths With close readings of works ranging from Margaret Atwood to Doris Lessing to Toni Morrison Wilson examines meanings of myths and fairy tales as well as their varying techniques images intertexts and genres Although the writers represent several different nationalities and racial ethnic and cultural backgrounds they employ a type of postcolonial literature that urges readers and societies beyond colonization Wilson argues that the use of myths and fairy tales generally convey characters transformation from alienation and symbolic amputation to greater consciousness community and wholeness and it is in and through story that characters construct a hybrid way of establishing themselves in the larger world African Climate Futures Carl Death, 2025-06-10 African Climate Futures shows how climate changed futures are imagined in Africa and by Africans and how these future visions shape political debates and struggles in the present Scientific climate scenarios forecast bleak futures with increased droughts floods lethal heatwaves sea level rises declining crop yields and greater exposure to vector borne diseases Yet African climate futures could also encompass energy transitions and socio economic revolutions transformed political agency and human subjectivities and radically reparative more than human climate politics At the heart of the book is an original and interdisciplinary approach It studies official climate policy strategies and fictional texts side by side as ecopolitical imaginaries that envision low carbon climate changed futures and narrate pathways from here to there It discusses net zero strategies from Ethiopia The Gambia Nigeria South Africa and Zimbabwe and draws on postcolonial feminist and queer theory arguing that Africanfuturist climate fiction can inspire more radical reparative more than human ecopolitical imaginaries. These stories can help us to understand the debts we all owe imagine what reparations might entail and explore the contours of living convivially alongside more than human others in heterotopian climate changed futures Stories can help explore how we might feel in climate changed futures and can help us to narrate a path through them This book uses Africanfuturist climate fiction to inspire new ways of challenging and enriching theoretical debates in global climate change politics including how we understand the places temporalities ecologies and politics of climate futures If we want to survive to tell new stories in liveable futures then we need to urgently and radically transform carboniferous capitalism Oxford Studies in African Politics and International Relations is a series for scholars and students working on African politics and International Relations and related disciplines Volumes concentrate on contemporary developments in African political science political economy and International Relations such as electoral politics democratization decentralization gender and political representation the political impact of natural resources the dynamics and consequences of conflict comparative political thought and the nature of the continent's engagement with the East and West Comparative and mixed methods work is particularly encouraged Case studies are welcomed but should demonstrate the broader theoretical and empirical implications of the study and its wider relevance to contemporary debates The focus of the series is on sub Saharan Africa although proposals that explain how the region engages with North Africa and other parts of the world are of interest Series Editors Nic Cheeseman University of Birmingham Peace Medie University of Bristol and Ricardo Soares de Oliveira University of Oxford Foundation ,2000 The Spectator, 2000 Land Forum ,1999 Mara Ile Dann Doris Lessing, 2012-09-01 The Diaries of Jane Somers Doris Lessing, 2002 First published in 1984 under a pseudonym as The Diary of a Good Neighbour and If the Old Could now published as The Diaries of Jane Somers this is in many ways classic Lessing As resonant with social and political themes as The Golden Notebook Lessing returns to the realism of her early fiction with the wisdom and experience of maturity The diaries introduce us to Jane an intelligent and beautiful magazine editor concerned with success clothes and comfort But her real inadequacy is highlighted when first her husband then her mother die from cancer and Jane feels strangely removed In an attempt to fill this void she befriends ninety something Maudie whose poverty and squalor contrast so radically with the glamour and luxury of the magazine world The two gradually come to depend on each other Maudie delighting Jane with tales of London in the 1920s and Jane trying to care for the rapidly deteriorating old woman The Diary of Jane Somers contrasts the helplessness of the elderly with that of the young as Jane is forced to care for her nineteen year old drop out niece Kate who is struggling with an emotional breakdown Jane realises that she understands young people as little as she so recently did the old Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Oscar Hijuelos-Patrick McGinley, 2000
