Le Bing Et Le Bang:

Journal of American Folklore ,1920 Rule of Law, Human Rights and Judicial Control of Power Rainer Arnold, José Ignacio Martínez-Estay, 2017-05-16 Judicial control of public power ensures a guarantee of the rule of law This book addresses the scope and limits of judicial control at the national level i e the control of public authorities and at the supranational level i e the control of States It explores the risk of judicial review leading to judicial activism that can threaten the principle of the separation of powers or the legitimate exercise of state powers It analyzes how national and supranational legal systems have embodied certain mechanisms such as the principles of reasonableness proportionality deference and margin of appreciation as well as the horizontal effects of human rights that help to determine how far a judge can go Taking a theoretical and comparative view the book first examines the conceptual bases of the various control systems and then studies the models structural elements and functions of the control instruments in selected countries and regions It uses country and regional reports as the basis for the comparison of the convergences and divergences of the implementation of control in certain countries of Europe Latin America and Africa The book s theoretical reflections and comparative investigations provide answers to important questions such as whether or not there are nascent universal principles concerning the control of public power how strong the impact of particular legal traditions is and to what extent international law concepts have had harmonizing and strengthening effects on internal public power control Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory Mathilde Köstler, 2022-12-19 How does Cajun literature emerging in the 1980s represent the dynamic processes of remembering in Cajun culture Known for its hybrid constitution and deeply ingrained oral traditions Cajun culture provides an ideal testing ground for investigating the collective memory of a group In particular francophone and anglophone Cajun texts by such writers as Jean Arceneaux Tim Gautreaux Jeanne Castille Zachary Richard Ron Thibodeaux Darrell Bourque and Kirby Jambon reveal not only a shift from an oral to a written tradition They also show hybrid perspectives on the Cajun collective memory Based on recurring references to place the texts also reflect on the Acadian past and reveal the innate ability of the Cajuns to adapt through repeated intertextual references The Cajun collective memory is thus defined by a transnational outlook a transversality cutting across various ethnic heritages to establish and legitimize a collective identity both amid the linguistic and cultural diversity in Louisiana and in the face of American mainstream culture Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory represents the first analysis of the mnemonic strategies Cajun writers use to explore and sustain the Cajun identity and collective memory Acta medica Scandinavica ,1926 Acta Oto-laryngologica ,1924 Cahiers du Sud ,1928 Les Annales politiques et littéraires ,1911
