Inequality and Flourishing Mariama Ifode-Blease , 2022-06-30 It is no surprise that Christians have long been involved in education the quest for human flourishing and wholeness is at the heart of the gospel and education is critical to that quest Good education has the power to transform our relationships with ourselves with each other with and within communities and ultimately between nation states But what is surprising is our theological silence in the face of the deep injustices which lie at the heart of our education system In Inequality and Flourishing Mariama Ifode Blease explores and exposes these inequalities and calls for a greater remembrance of the bountiful and daunting gift of stewardship we have as we educate young people Drawing on interviews she offers a fresh vision of education as being about giving children the best tools to be stewards of their minds and bodies our communities and ultimately our planet

Pure Maths Peter Sherran, Janet Crawshaw, 1997 A good grade at A Level or Scottish Higher Grade can depend on the student's ability to tackle exam questions confidently and to understand the technique involved in answering questions accurately The aim of this text is to help students learn how to answer questions in an exam environment It provides an insight into the mind of the examiner highlighting what makes a good answer how marks are allocated and what the most common mistakes are Questions are taken from past papers or newly written by the authors with revision summaries answers with full working and examiner's tips They are an ideal complement to A Level study guides
