Ethnographies of Power Sharad Chari, Mark Hunter, Melanie Samson, Jennifer A Devine, Michael Ekers, Jennifer Greenburg, Bridget Kenny, Stefan Kipfer, Alex Loftus, Zachary Levenson, Ahmed Veriava, 2022-08 In our time of rampant inequality imperial capitalist plunder violence and ecocide when radical concepts from the past seem inadequate how do researchers and students of ethnographic work decide what concepts to work with or renew Gillian Hart is a key thinker in radical political economy geography development studies agrarian studies and Gramscian critique of postcolonial capitalism In Ethnographies of Power each contributor engages her work and applies it to their own field of study A major contribution of this collection is the merging of theory with praxis resulting in invaluable research tools for postgraduate students These include applying gendered labour practices among workers in South Africa reading racial capitalism through agrarian debates using relational comparison in an ethnography of schooling across Durban reworking multiple socio spatial trajectories in Guatemala s Maya Biosphere Reserve critiquing the notion of South Africa s second economy revisiting development processes and Development discourses in US military contracting reconsidering Gramsci s conjunctures geographically finding divergent articulations in Cape Town land occupations and exploring nationalism as central to revaluing recyclables at a Soweto landfill Together the chapters show how important the ongoing reworking of radical concepts is to ethnographic critiques of power Ethnographies of Power offers an invaluable toolkit for activists and scholars engaged in sharpening their critical concepts for social and environmental change towards a collective future

The Post-Election Violence in Kenya Sosteness Francis Materu, 2014-12-04 Since the historic Nuremberg Trial of 1945 an international customary law principle has developed that commission of a core crime under international law war crimes genocide crimes against humanity and aggression should not go unpunished History shows that when in Africa such violations occurred especially as a result of election disputes national and regional actors including the African Union resorted to political rather than legal responses However when crimes against humanity were alleged to have been committed in Kenya during the 2007 2008 post election violence a promising road map for criminal accountability was agreed upon alongside a political solution In the spirit of this road map the author analyzes the post election violence in Kenya from a legal point of view He extensively examines legal options for domestic criminal accountability and discusses both retributive prosecutions and restorative justice mainly truth commission mechanisms being the main legal responses to the gross violations of human rights Furthermore he thoroughly investigates the Kenya situation before the ICC and the legal cum political responses to the ICC intervention in Kenya Practitioners and academics in the field of international criminal law and related disciplines as well as political sciences and legal history will find in this book highly relevant information about alternative legal approaches of the fight against and punishment of crimes against humanity as defined under the ICC Statute

Achieving a nutrition revolution for Africa Hendriks, Sheryl L., 2016-10-17 Focusing the 2015 Annual Trends and

Outlook Report ATOR on nutrition will contribute to a broader understanding of the critical role of nutrition in achieving international continental and national economic growth targets through agriculture food security and nutrition This report presents information and analysis in support of evidence based policy making that should inform the second generation of CAADP national investment plans now being developed This is an important moment for shaping the region s future and ensuring that the much needed agriculture led growth and development agenda can simultaneously deliver on improving nutrition saving lives improving productivity and health and curbing nutrition related diseases and the associated public health expenditures These investment plans should address not only the usual elements of undernutrition but also widespread micronutrient deficiencies termed hidden hunger and the growing problem of overweight and obesity that is associated with economic growth

Palmer's Index to "The Times" Newspaper ,1896 Britain, France and the Decolonization of Africa Andrew W.M. Smith,Chris Jeppesen,2017-03-01 Looking at decolonization in the conditional tense this volume teases out the complex and uncertain ends of British and French empire in Africa during the period of late colonial shift after 1945 Rather than view decolonization as an inevitable process the contributors together explore the crucial historical moments in which change was negotiated compromises were made and debates were staged Three core themes guide the analysis development contingency and entanglement The chapters consider the ways in which decolonization was governed and moderated by concerns about development and profit A complementary focus on contingency allows deeper consideration of how colonial powers planned for colonial futures and how divergent voices greeted the end of empire Thinking about entanglements likewise stresses both the connections that existed between the British and French empires in Africa and those that endured beyond the formal transfer of power
