The Imperative of Development Geoffrey Gertz, Homi Kharas, Johannes F. Linn, 2017-09-12 The achievements and legacy of the Wolfensohn Center for Development at Brookings The Imperative of Development highlights the research and policy analysis produced by the Wolfensohn Center for Development at Brookings The Center which operated from 2006 to 2011 was the first home at Brookings for research on international development It sought to help identify effective solutions to key development challenges in order to create a more prosperous and stable world Founded by James and Elaine Wolfensohn the Center's mission was to create knowledge that leads to action with real scaled up and lasting development impact This volume reviews the Center's achievements and lasting legacy combining highlights of its most important research with new essays that examine the context and impact of that research Six primary research streams of the Wolfensohn Center's work are highlighted in The Imperative of Development the shifting structure of the world economy in the twenty first century the challenge of scaling up the impact of development interventions the effectiveness of development assistance how to promote economic and social inclusion for Middle Eastern youth the case for investing in early child development and the need for global governance reform In each chapter a scholar associated with the particular research topic provides an overview of the issue and its broader context then describes the Center's work on the topic and the subsequent influence and impact of these efforts The Imperative of Development chronicles the growth and expansion of the first center for development research in Brookings's 100 year history and traces how the seeds of this initiative continue to bear fruit Risk and Opportunity Jan H. Hofmeyr, 2008 Governance and the economy The labour market Education and skills development Poverty and inequality The Natal Civil Service List ... KwaZulu-Natal (South Africa). Colonial Secretary's Office, 1908 The Youth Dividend Jan H. Hofmeyr, 2012 Centering Whole-Child Development in Global Education Reform Jaekyung Lee, Kenneth K. Wong, 2022-05-25 This volume offers critical analysis of national school reform policies intended to align with global agendas to promote educational quality and equity By uniquely foregrounding the need for education reform to nurture child well being alongside traditional measures of academic achievement the book identifies common challenges across the Global North and South and extends insights provided by international student assessment data Chapters offer a close analysis of reform practices in countries in Africa Europe Asia and the Americas to consider cultural social political and functional aspects which drive or inhibit the success of reform initiatives Providing excellent insights into holistic education for children and youth this book highlights lessons to support global efforts in providing high quality equitable education for the whole child Developing international knowledge and supplementing international data this volume will be of interest to students scholars and researchers with an interest in education policy as well as comparative and international education Early Childhood Education for Muslim Children Hasina Ebrahim, 2016-12-08 Early Childhood Education for Muslim Children foregrounds the marginalised perspective of Muslim children aged three to five and examines how they are cared for and educated in centre based provision in two provinces in post apartheid South Africa Both theological and social science perspectives are carefully interwoven to make sense of the construction of service provision for Muslims as a minority group in a secular democracy This book uses a qualitative reflexive approach to amplify the voices of mothers managers and teachers as the community of agents who shape priorities for young children in the context of a rapidly transforming society The research demonstrates that the quest to establish an appropriate care network and a sound educative environment for Muslim children is riddled with complexities struggles and tensions In the light of changes in the home based network for early education centre based provision has become an important infrastructure for Muslim communities seeking one stop academic and Islamic education The internal struggles encountered in this form of provision include inequities in access struggles to package an appropriate curriculum and dealing with nurturance specific to the faith and for cultural formations supportive of citizenship This book calls for critical engagement with issues of religious education in early childhood social cohesion formal systematic teacher education for Muslim teachers curriculum development and parental support It will contribute not only to the development of early education from an Islamic perspective but will also demonstrate how to expand discourses and practices to deal with diversity and faith development in early years As such it will appeal to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of early childhood education religious studies race and ethnic studies and childhood studies

Interpellations, Questions and Replies of the National Assembly South Africa. Parliament (1994-). National Assembly, 1999

Struggling to Make the Grade: A Review of the Causes and Consequences of the Weak Outcomes of South Africa's Education System Mr. Montfort Mlachila, Tlhalefang Moeletsi, 2019-03-01 While South Africa has made significant improvements in basic and tertiary education enrollment the country still suffers from significant challenges in the quality of educational achievement by almost any international metric The paper finds that money is clearly not the main issue since the South Africa's education budget is comparable to OECD countries as a percent of GDP and exceeds that of most peer sub Saharan African countries in per capita terms The main explanatory factors are complex and multifaceted and are associated with insufficient subject knowledge of some teachers history race language geographic location and socio economic status Low educational achievement contributes to low productivity growth and high levels of poverty unemployment and inequality Drawing on the literature the paper sketches some policy considerations to guide the debate on what works and what does not Trade Unions and Democracy Mark Harcourt, Geoffrey E. Wood, 2004 This book explores the changing role of trade unions as products of and agents for democracy Despite conventionally being portrayed as politically marginalised and in terminal decline trade unions continue to represent a significant component of society within most industrialised countries and have demonstrated a capacity for revival and renewal in the face of difficult circumstances It brings together a distinguished panel of leading and emerging scholars in the field and provides a critical assessment of the current role of trade unions in society their capacity to impact on state policies in such a manner as to ensure greater accountability and fairness and the nature and extent of internal representative democracy within the labour movement This volume will be of interest to students and academics in industrial relations critical management studies political studies and sociology

Financial Mail ,2006 Trade Unions and Democracy Geoffrey Wood,2017-09-29 Trade Unions and Democracy explores the role of trade unions as products of and agents for democracy As civil society agents unions may promote democracy within the wider society especially in the case of authoritarian regimes or other rigid political systems by acting as watchdogs and protecting hard won democratic gains Established democratic institutions in many advanced societies are facing new challenges The problem with using trade unions for this purpose is that they remain locked in a cycle of political marginalization and decline Beyond this there are ironically serious questions about whether unions themselves internally function as democracies Certainly there are tensions between rank and file membership and an authoritarian leadership with this infighting having possible effects on strategic deals or alliances and member accountability and actions On the other hand trade unions continue to represent a significant component of society within most industrialized countries and in many case they have a demonstrated capacity for working with other elements of civil society Looking forward trade unions may be able to play a vital role in channeling and focusing spontaneous popular upsurges In the process they may revitalize themselves through use of greater internal democracy and become geared toward more diverse constituencies The question is will they fulfill this promise or continue to suffer from internal breakups and external breakdowns Can trade unions save themselves and democracy or will both deteriorate in time Trade Unions and Democracy brings together a distinguished panel of leading and emerging scholars in the field and provides a critical assessment of the current role of trade unions in society It explores their capacity to affect political policies to ensure greater accountability and fairness It also explores the nature of and extent to which internal representative democracy actually operates within trade unions themselves Mark Harcourt is a professor in the Department of Strategic Management and Leadership at Waikato University in New Zealand

Overcoming Inequality Unesco,2008 Published jointly by the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization UNESCO EFA Global Monitoring Report ,2009 Beyond the Apartheid Workplace Eddie Webster,Karl Von Holdt,2005 Has the apartheid workplace changed over the past ten years of democracy in South Africa In order to answer this question the contributors of this book studied seventeen different workplaces including BMW a state hospital footwear sweatshops and the wine farming industry The editors broaden the definition of work to cover studies of the informal economy including street traders homeworkers and small rural enterprises Beyond the Apartheid Workplace shows how South Africa s triple transition towards political democracy economic liberalization and post colonial transformation has generated contradictory pressures at workplace levels A wide range of managerial strategies and union responses are identified demonstrating both continuities and discontinuities with past practices These studies reveal a growing

differentiation within the world of work between stable formal sector work casualized and outsourced work and informal work where people struggle to make a living on the margins of the formal economy The majority of workplaces are marked by the persistence and reconfiguration of the apartheid legacy Deepening poverty and exclusion have been generated among great numbers of workers and their dependents Gaffney's Local Government in South Africa ,2009 Estimates of National Expenditure South Africa,2006 Superar la desigualdad Unesco,2009 Pharos Afrikaans-Engels, Engels-Afrikaans woordeboek Madaleine Du Plessis,Fred Pheiffer,Wanda Smith-Müller,Jana Luther,2005 The new edition of this foremost English Afrikaans translating dictionary has been comprehensively expanded and updated Teachers' Salaries in New York City Citizens' Committee on Teachers' Salaries, New York,1927 How Does Teacher Pay Compare? Sylvia A. Allegretto,2004 Reviews recent analyses of relative teacher compensation and provides a detailed analysis of trends in the relative weekly pay of elementary and secondary school teachers Shows that teacher compensation lags that of workers with similar education and experience as well as that of workers with comparable skill requirements like accountants reporters registered nurses computer programmers clergy personnel officers and vocational counselors and inspectors Finds that teachers weekly wages have grown far more slowly than those for these comparable occupations teacher wages have deteriorated about 14.8 percent since 1993 and by 12.0 percent since 1983 relative to comparable occupations
