National Human Development Report 2006:

National Human Development Report, 2006, 2006 Beating the Odds, 2008-01-01 When data are available after 2003 the assessment uses them including data from a special non representative survey developed for this report the poverty and vulnerability survey The starting point for the analysis uses multiple quantitative and qualitative indicators that describe levels of and changes in opportunities and outcomes for households and communities in Mozambique since 1997 The rest of the report explains these changes BOOK JACKET Public Health Aspects of HIV/AIDS in Low and Middle Income Countries David Celentano, Chris Beyrer, 2008-09-11 It has now been 25 years since the apocryphal report in the CDC Morbidity and Mortality Weekly Report dated June 5 1981 entitled Pneumocystis Pneumonia Los Angeles which announced what was to become HIV AIDS HIV has now affected virtually all countries that have looked for it and has had a devastating impact on the public health and medical care infrastructure around the world HIV AIDS has also disproportionately affected nations with the least capacity to confront it especially the developing world nations in Sub Saharan Africa South and Southeast Asia and the emerging republics of Eastern and Central Asia The pandemic unlike any other disease of our time has had profound impacts on the practice of public health itself bringing affected communities into decision making demanding North South partnerships and collaborations and changing the basic conduct of clinical and prevention trials research While much has been written in scholarly publications for medical epidemiologic and disease control specialists there is no comprehensive review of the public health impact and response to HIV AIDS in the developing world This edited volume seeks to systematically describe the emergence and form of the epidemics epidemiology the social community and political response and the various measures to confront and control the epidemic with varying levels of success Of particular importance are strategies that appear to have been useful in ameliorating the epidemic while contrasting the situation in a neighboring country or region where contrasting prevention or care initiatives have had a deleterious outcome Common to all responses has been the international multi sectoral response represented by the Global Fund for HIV AIDS Malaria and Tuberculosis the President s Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief and the Gates Foundation among others to promote HIV pharmacologic therapy in resource poor settings The chapter authors will explore the political challenges in meeting HIV AIDS prevention and care in concert with the public health realities in specific country and regional context National Human Development Report, 2007 Women Navigating Globalization Jana Everett, Sue Ellen M. Charlton, 2013-11-14 This up to date text offers a clear and cogent introduction to women in development Exploring the global structures and processes that impede or support the empowerment of women Jana Everett and Sue Ellen M Charlton use a feminist lens to understand contemporary gender roles Without such a lens they argue our understanding of globalization and development is incomplete resulting in flawed policies that fail to improve the lives of millions of people around the globe After a set of introductory chapters that conceptually frame the issues the authors then investigate women s struggles within and against globalization and development through powerful case studies of sex trafficking water work and health These chapters by using specific examples develop the concepts of structure and agency levels of analysis and feminist approaches as tools to help students understand the complexities of development and alternative strategies Through rich interdisciplinary analysis Everett and Charlton explore the individual and collective strategies women have used to improve their lives under globalization and weigh how effective they have been Their book will be an essential resource in women s studies political science political economy anthropology sociology and development studies

An East Asian Renaissance Indermit Singh Gill,Homi J. Kharas,Deepak Bhattasali,2007 An East Asian Renaissance by a World Bank team led by Chief Economist for East Asia Pacific Dr Homi Kharas and Economic Adviser Dr Indermit Gill is the first comprehensive analysis of the new forces and challenges at play in the region since the Bank s seminal report of 1993 The East Asian Miracle The report argues that regional flows of goods finance and technology are helping even smaller East Asian countries reap the benefits of economies of scale and that this regional integration must be encouraged But it also points out that these measures have to be supported by actions at the domestic level to ease the stresses and strains that rapid economic growth leaves in its wake East Asia must now turn to the urgent domestic challenges of inequality social cohesion corruption and environmental degradation arising from its economic success Preventing Violent Conflict in Africa Y. Mine, F. Stewart, S. Fukuda-Parr, T. Mkandawire, 2013-10-17 Horizontal inequalities are root causes of violent conflict in Africa Yet people take actions not because of statistical data on inequalities of which they might not be aware but because of injustices they perceive This volume analyses the results of original surveys with over 3 000 respondents in African cities and towns exposing clear discrepancies between objective inequalities and people's subjective perceptions The contributors examine experiences in country pairs and probe into the reasons why neighbouring countries sharing common historical traits sometimes took contrasting pathways of peace and violent conflict Combining quantitative analysis and qualitative anatomy of historical experiences of conflict and reconciliation in Rwanda Burundi Ghana Cote d'Ivoire South Africa Zimbabwe Uganda Tanzania Kenya and Nigeria the study brings forward a set of policy recommendations for development practitioners This work further addresses the issue of institutional choice and reveals how sustainable power sharing and decentralisation contribute to political stability in Africa

Sustainable Development Human Development Report 2007/2008 United Nations Development Programme,2007-11-15 Human development is about putting people at the center of development It is about people realizing their potential increasing choice and enjoying the freedom to lead the lives they value Created in 1990 the Human Development Report has explored themes including gender equity democracy human rights globalization cultural liberty and water scarcity The past years have witnessed the emergence of a growing consensus on climate change Governments across the world have seen the warning signs The science linking global warming to human activity is unequivocal The economic case for action is compelling the costs of inaction will heavily outweigh the costs of action Yet the politics lags behind the science and the economics Collectively the world s governments are failing to act with the urgency demanded by the scale of the threat The window of opportunity for avoiding dangerous climate change is closing fast This year s Human Development Report explains why we have less than a decade to change course and start living within our global carbon budget It explains how climate change will create long run low human development traps pushing vulnerable people into a downward spiral of deprivation Because climate change is a global problem with global causes and effects it demands a global response with countries acting on the basis of their historic responsibility and capabilities Arab Human Development Report 2009 United Nations Development Programme. Regional Bureau for Arab States,2009 The Arab Human Development Report aims at building human development in the Arab world Gender inequality is generally recognized as one of the main obstacles to development in the Arab Region This volume of the report focuses on the history and contemporary dynamics of Arab women s economic political and social empowerment It details the processes in which gender impacts on Arab development while suggesting means of overcoming some of the challenges and building more equitable societies The Asia-Pacific Human Development Report ,2010 Addressing the Impact of the Phasing Out of Textiles and Clothing Quotas in Lao PDR.: Diversification and value addition in Lao PDR : case studies on tourism, handicraft and food processing sectors ,2007 Nasarawa Journal of Political Science ,2011-07 Islamic Economic Studies ,2010
