Fathers and Forefathers Martin Robb, 2020-12-15 Research on fathers and fatherhood has blossomed in recent years focusing for the most part on present day fathering experiences but also beginning to uncover hidden narratives of past fatherhood This collection aims to add something new to this expanding field by exploring the dynamic relationship between present and past fatherhoods The popular understanding of fathers in past generations as being detached and uninvolved in the lives of their children can be said to play a significant part in the construction of modern fathering identities with ideas of new fatherhood being played off against notions of historical fathering practices However research has begun to show that these popular myths often misremember the past judging it by current standards and obscuring the diverse nature of fathering practices in the recent and distant past A genealogical approach is able to critically examine these intergenerational constructions of fatherhood and more positively illuminate the ways in which experiences of fathering and being fathered are passed on between generations The contributions to this collection use a genealogical approach broadly defined to fathering and fatherhood as a way of defamiliarizing accepted narratives and suggesting new ways of thinking about men and their relationships with their children Young People Using Family Violence Kate Fitz-Gibbon, Heather Douglas, Jane Maree Maher, 2021-05-08 This book examines the use of violence by children and young people in family settings and proposes specialised and age appropriate responses to these children and young people It interrogates the adequacy and effectiveness of current service and justice system responses including analysis of police court and specialist service responses It proposes new approaches to children and young people who use violence that are evidence based non punitive and informed by an understanding of the complexity of needs and the importance of age appropriate service responses Bringing together a range of Australian and International experts it sheds new light on questions such as How can we best understand and respond to the use of family violence by young people To what extent do traditional family violence responses address the experiences of adolescents who use violence in family settings What barriers to help seeking exist for parental and sibling victims of adolescent family violence To what degree do existing support and justice services provide adequate responses to those using adolescent family violence and their families In what circumstances do children kill their biological and adopted parents The explicit focus on child and adolescent family violence produces new knowledge in the area of family violence which will be of relevance to academics policy makers and family violence practitioners in Australia and internationally The Spectator, 2006 Work-life Balance, 2008 The Girl Who Climbed Everest: The inspirational story of Alyssa Azar, Australia's Youngest Adventurer Sue Williams, 2016-09-19 I believe that nothing is impossible if you dare to dream plan and take action I m an ordinary girl who simply refused to give up on a dream and that s all it takes to succeed in life Alyssa Azar is unstoppable When she was just eight years old she walked the gruelling Kokoda Track the youngest person in the world to do so At twelve she climbed the ten highest peaks in Australia Two years later she touched the top of Mount Kilimanjaro Now at the age of nineteen she has reached the roof of the world the summit of Mount Everest The Girl Who Climbed Everest is the inspiring story of how an ordinary girl from country Queensland worked towards ascending the world s highest peak Through passion determination and immense hard work and despite being turned back twice once by a deadly avalanche and the second time by a devastating earthquake that nearly claimed her life Alyssa is the youngest Australian to have achieved this extraordinary feat She shares the thrills and heartbreaking disappointments on the road to reaching her goal and explains how she finds the courage and motivation to keep going in the face of overwhelming danger and adversity Above all Alyssa s story shows us that we can achieve anything if we dare to dream big Theatre Record, 1996 Flour & Feed, 1909 The Critic, 1881 Critic and Good Literature Jeannette Leonard Gilder, Joseph Benson Gilder, 1881 The Delineator R.
