Nato Strategy And Out Of Area Operations:

NATO Strategy and Out-Of-Area Operations School of Advanced Military Studies, 2014-10-25 This book examines the viability of recent NATO out of area operations specifically in Kosovo and Afghanistan It illustrates that the complex decision making bureaucracy of NATO can be a detriment to the capabilities of the alliance and limits the strategic options available to the organization By studying strategy development after the end of the Cold War and leading up to the commitment of NATO to the ISAF it becomes clear that these structures and processes do not easily facilitate the formation of a coherent strategy that meets alliance objectives During times of conflict especially those well outside of alliance boundaries more flexible and adaptable institutional structures are necessary for effective war prosecution Through this approach it becomes apparent that the anticipated new strategic concept must once again adapt the alliance in order to remain relevant in the contemporary security environment NATO's New Strategic Concept. A Comprehensive Assessment Sten Rynning, 2011

Germany, NATO's Out-of-area Operations, and the CSDP Kent S. Oglesby, 2014 Germany stands as a pivotal country within the NATO alliance it is an economic superpower and occupies a central geographic and political position in Europe Germany's defense policy and its approach to alliance commitments will have a significant impact on the success or failure of NATO strategy However its participation in post Cold War NATO combat operations has varied from full commitment to outright abstention This paper will explore the reasons behind Germany's inconsistent support of NATO combat missions in the Balkans Bosnia Herzegovina and Kosovo Afghanistan and Libya Given the parallel development of a security framework within the European Union it will also examine the EU's Common Security and Defense Policy and evaluate its viability as an alternative to NATO as Germany's primary military alliance An Introduction to European Intergovernmental

Organizations Professor Marc Cogen, 2015-02-28 An Introduction to European Intergovernmental Organizations provides an up to date and accessible reference to European intergovernmental organizations other than the European Union The specialized character of these organizations adds value to cooperation in Europe as a whole creates permanent channels of communication regardless of EU membership and allows the possibility for non European involvement through organizations such as the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development and NATO It also allows sub regional groups of states such as the Nordic countries or the Benelux countries to exist and express their own identity via their own organizations

Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1986-01 Strategic Assessment 1995 Hans Binnendijk, Patrick Clawson, National Defense University. Institute for National Strategic Studies, 1995 Strategic Assessment National Defense University. Institute for National Strategic Studies, 1995 Europeanisation and the Transformation of EU Security Policy Petros Violakis, 2018-05-15 The aim of this study is to examine the extent to which the end of the Cold War led to Europeanisation in the Common Security and Defence Policy CSDP The analysis takes into consideration previous studies on Europeanisation and its impact on the transformation of national security and defence and attempts to account for the development of

Europeanisation and related mechanisms These mechanisms which have been described as framing mechanisms and negative integration incorporate all the major relevant factors identified here i e a common Strategic Culture new security identity domestic political decision making industrial base and defence spending decline that contributed to the realisation of the CSDP The relevance of these factors for CSDP Europeanisation is examined through an historical and empirical analysis and the relationship between the CSDP and North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO is also explored This approach facilitates analysis of the debate concerning the emergence of the CSDP and throws light on the political shift that led European Union EU leaders to support the CSDP Another aspect of this study is the empirical examination of the dynamics and limitations of the European defence sector The changes which took place in this sector facilitated the emergence of the CSDP and are therefore analysed in the light of globalisation issues economies of scale economic crises military autonomy new security strategy and Research and Development R D impact This book will be of interest to students of European security EU politics defence studies and International Relations

The Future of NATO's Tactical Air Doctrine Linda E. Torrens, 1997 This study analyzes the need for changes to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO airpower doctrine to reflect current post cold war realities NATO air doctrine does not yet reflect the actuality of today s operations nor does it anticipate the probable future employment of NATO s airpower Out of area operations and Partnership for Peace participation in NATO operations will have profound effects on combined doctrine training organizational structures exercises and employment of forces NATO s tactical doctrine revision process served the alliance well during the cold war But today the international environment has drastically changed Both the nature of the threat and the use of NATO airpower during conflict have changed The current doctrinal revision process has proved too slow and cumbersome to provide adequate direction for air strategists during ongoing operations There are many new doctrinal areas that must be thoroughly addressed so that NATO can chart a course for the future that in the end provides the best most effective mix of forces

Strategic Digest ,2004 Europe After an American Withdrawal Jane M. O. Sharp, 1990 This book clarifies the debate about alliance burden sharing and the U S commitment to Europe by exploring the political economic and military implications of a hypothetical American withdrawal The contributors first examine the economic costs and benefits of U S installations in Europe as perceived in the U S as well as in the host nations They then analyze the different kinds of military gaps that a withdrawal would generate in the northern central and southern regions as well as the gaps in command control communications and intelligence capabilities Finally the essays examine the problems Western Europe would face in trying to cope with an American withdrawal and how the U S could fulfill its global commitments without its European bases

Journal of Third World Studies ,1992 Consists of abstracts of selected papers from various conferences dealing with the third world and its problems NATO and Forward Defense ,2005 This thesis examines the NATO s adaptation of a new security focus towards forward defense in the 21st Century Until the late 1990 s the strategic focus of NATO was on mutual defense based on a collective response guaranteed by Article 5 of the Washington Treaty Since the adoption of NATO s Strategic Concept 1999 the Alliance has shifted their strategic focus toward a forward defense strategy As NATO assumed more operational responsibilities and deployed forces out of area in non Article 5 missions the disparity of military capabilities operational challenges and cultural and institutional differences within the Alliance gave rise to the question Is NATO the most effective instrument with which to execute a strategy of forward defense A review of the expeditionary campaigns in the Balkans Afghanistan and Iraq determines the efficiency of the Alliance as an expeditionary security actor The modernization of European military capabilities are described in relation to NATO and how these programs either complement or duplicate existing structures and capabilities Furthermore inherent structural flaws in NATO s composition are examined as well as cultural and ideological differences within the Alliance and their effects on out of area operations Finally challenges and issues that may confront NATO in the future during the execution of their forward defense strategy are discussed The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords,2010 Government Reports Announcements & Index ,1996 Strategic Transformation and Naval Power in the 21st Century Pelham G. Boyer,Robert S.
