John Laband

Isizulu Paper2013 Grade11:

Zulu Warriors John Laband,2014-05-27 Toward the end of the nineteenth century the British embarked on a concerted series of campaigns in South Africa Within three years they waged five wars against African states with the intent of destroying their military might and political independence and unifying southern Africa under imperial control This is the first work to tell the story of this cluster of conflicts as a single whole and to narrate the experiences of the militarily outmatched African societies Deftly fusing the widely differing European and African perspectives on events John Laband details the fateful decisions of individual leaders and generals and explores why many Africans chose to join the British and colonial forces The Xhosa Zulu and other African military cultures are brought to vivid life showing how varying notions of warrior honor and manliness influenced the outcomes for African fighting men and their societies Afrikaans Linguistics

WAM Carstens,Nerina Bosman,2024-10-03 Offering a contemporary exploration of the multifaceted landscape of Afrikaans linguistics Afrikaans Linguistics Contemporary Perspectives marks a seminal contribution to the field This volume for the first time presents accessible insights into diverse linguistics subdisciplines inviting international scholars to familiarise themselves with Afrikaans language studies Throughout much of the late 19th and 20th centuries Afrikaans scholars predominantly communicated in Afrikaans resulting in a significant gap in the dissemination of knowledge about the language The chapters in this book written by prominent South Africans as well as international scholars working in the field of Afrikaans serve as a pivotal bridge by providing essential historical context while also paying attention to the development of Afrikaans linguistics during the 20th century The primary focus remains on illuminating 21st century research trajectories offering a comprehensive snapshot of contemporary scholarship in Afrikaans linguistics Extended Curriculum Programmes

Tennyson Mngutshini,2022-04-30 The introduction of ECPs in South African Universities is seen by many as South Africa s key strategy for addressing the problem of poor patterns of student success and has its basis on the uncontested acceptance that an extended study duration may be necessary to bring some categories of learners to a level of parity with the readiness expectations of their course of study Even so this transformative strategic imperative has been plagued by a range of challenges that include poor systems readiness poor selection mechanisms in the identification of ECP students poor numeracy and literacy amongst students and indifferent teacher involvement in ECPs This volume offers a rare insight into many of the above recognised challenges and in so doing provides critical matter for thought for educators within the higher education sector Student Misconceptions and Errors in Physics and Mathematics
