Lucy Calkins, 2010-10-12 If the writing workshop is always changing always haphazard children remain pawns waiting for their teacher's agenda For this reason and others I think it is so important for each day's workshop to have a clear simple structure Children should know what to expect This allows them to carry on it frees the teacher from choreographing activities and allows time for listening How we structure the workshop is less important than that we structure it Lucy Calkins Learn how to teach narrative and expository writing with increasing power and intimacy and how Lucy Calkins and her colleagues launch a rigorous and responsive intermediate writing workshop Through 2 foundational books A Guide to the Writing Workshop and Launching the Writing Workshop and eight online video clips Lucy and her colleagues provide the strategies lesson plans and tools you'll need to lead strong efficient writing workshops in upper elementary classrooms A Guide to the Writing Workshop equips you to teach a productive well managed writing workshop introduces you to the methods that underlie all writing instruction and helps you plan a yearlong curriculum in the teaching of writing After chronicling the guiding principles that shape a writing workshop Lucy details the developmental stages of upper elementary writers Ensuing chapters describe the architecture of minilessons conferences and small group strategy sessions and explain how the predictability of these frameworks fosters independence and self direction In addition to describing the management systems that make writing workshops possible select chapters consider various ways to tailor instruction and address the demands of the contemporary classroom In Launching the Writing Workshop Lucy helps you launch both your writing workshop and your yearlong writing curriculum While initiating students into the structures and rituals of the writing workshop this unit also reviews and teaches the essentials of writing collecting drafting revising editing and publishing In addition to introducing practical strategies for finding topics and generating writing children practice the strategy of making movies in their minds and writing so readers can picture exactly what is happening Students also learn the value of focusing on small moments in such detail that readers feel they are experiencing the event Through the eight accompanying video clips Lucy and her colleagues open the doors of their classrooms and invite you to eavesdrop on their elementary writing workshops These live from the classroom video clips are supported and enhanced by an optional voice over coaching commentary from Lucy that explains the teaching moves and strategies Video clips are free for 6 months upon registration You must register within 6 months of purchase Learn more about these resources and the series at www.unitsofstudy.com This pack is part of firsthand's Getting Started series Bridging the gap between educational theory and practice firsthand classroom materials model the carefully crafted techniques and language of master teachers in ways that help teachers refine their practice and reinvent their own teaching The most comprehensive of these resources span more than a year of instruction Firsthand s Getting Started Packs were created for teachers in training and professional book study groups who want a compact affordable way to study and tryout these transformative classroom materials Each Getting Started Pack includes an overview book a complete unit of study online video clips provided free of charge for 6 months and an accompanying study guide Getting Started packs include Launch a Primary Writing Workshop Grades K 2 Launch an Intermediate Writing Workshop Grades 3 5 Launch an Intermediate Reading Workshop Grades 3 5 Introduce the Qualities of Writing Grades 3 6 Monitor Comprehension with Primary Students Grades K 2 Monitor Comprehension with Intermediate Students Grades 3 6 Investigate the Number System Grades K 3 Investigate Multiplication Grades 3 5 Investigate Fractions Grades 4 6 Launch an Intermediate Reading Workshop Lucy Calkins,2010-10-12 Workshops are deliberately kept simple and predictable like an art studio or a researcher s laboratory because it is the work itself that is ever changing and complex Each day s teaching in a workshop does not set up a new hoop for the students to all jump through in sync Instead for the bulk of time during each day students carry on with their work As they do so they draw upon a growing repertoire of skills tools strategies and habit Lucy Calkins Learn how to teach students to read with increasing sophistication and personal engagement and how Lucy Calkins and her colleagues launch a rigorous and responsive intermediate reading workshop Through 2 foundational books A Guide to the Reading Workshop and Building a Reading Life and eight online video clips Lucy and her colleagues provide the strategies lesson plans and tools you ll need to lead strong efficient reading workshops in upper elementary classrooms A Guide to the Reading Workshop crystallizes the reading workshop After detailing the essential principles of reading workshop instruction Lucy describes how to develop engaging minilessons that develop the skills of proficient readers In the chapters that follow Lucy presents different ways to lead small group work and one to one conferences In addition to describing the predictable methods and structures of a reading workshop select chapters consider various ways to assess readers and track their development how to use data to inform your instruction and how to differentiate instruction and prepare for standardized reading tests Building a Reading Life launches the reading workshop In this unit of study Lucy and Kathleen Tolan pull out all stops in an effort to help all their students become avid readers They wear a love of reading on their own sleeves help students fashion their identities as people who care about reading and create a social life that revolves around shared books above all they help students develop a sense of agency about their reading lives taking responsibility for becoming the kinds of readers who not only make sense of books but also let books change their lives Lucy and Kathleen meanwhile induct children into the structures routines and habits of a reading workshop Students learn how to choose books that are just right in level and interest to carry books between home and school to collect and study data about their reading rates and volume and to push themselves to read with increasing stamina fluency and volume In reading partnerships children learn to retell and summarize texts and to share ideas that are grounded in the specifics of their books Through the eight accompanying video clips Lucy and other master teachers invite you to eavesdrop on their minilessons small group instruction and conferences Dramatic video clips let you sit alongside young readers as they engage in book clubs reading partnerships and inquiry groups Video clips are free for 6 months upon registration You must register within 6 months of purchase Learn more about these resources and the Units of Study series at www.unitsofstudy.com This pack is part of firsthand s Getting Started series Bridging the gap between educational theory and practice firsthand classroom materials model the carefully crafted techniques and language of master teachers in ways that help teachers refine their practice and reinvent their own teaching The most comprehensive of these resources span more than a year of instruction Firsthand s Getting Started Packs were created for teachers in training and professional book study groups who want a compact affordable way to study and tryout these transformative classroom materials Each Getting Started Pack includes an overview book a complete unit of study online video clips provided free of charge for 6 months and an accompanying study guide Getting Started packs include Launch a Primary Writing Workshop Grades K 2 Launch an Intermediate Writing Workshop Grades 3 5 Launch an Intermediate Reading Workshop Grades 3 5 Introduce the Qualities of Writing Grades 3 6 Monitor Comprehension with Primary Students Grades K 2 Monitor Comprehension with Intermediate Students Grades 3 6 Investigate the Number System Grades K 3 Investigate Multiplication Grades 3 5 Investigate Fractions Grades 4 6

Teaching the Best Practice Way Harvey Daniels, Marilyn Bizar, 2005 Everyone talks about best practice teaching but what does it actually look like in the classroom How do working teachers translate complex curriculum standards into simple workable classroom structures that embody exemplary instruction and still let kids find joy in learning In Teaching the Best Practice Way Harvey Daniels and Marilyn Bizar present seven basic teaching structures that make classrooms more active experiential collaborative democratic and cognitive while simultaneously meeting best practice standards across subject areas and throughout the grades Each section begins with an essay outlining one key method providing its historical background and research results and then describing the structure s vital features Next several teachers representing different grade levels and school communities explain how they adopted the basic model adapted it to their students needs and made it their own Fully updating and expanding Methods that Matter Stenhouse 1998 Teaching the Best Practice Way adds the stories of twenty more celebrated teachers including James Beane Donna Ogle Franki Sibberson and others from around the country A brand new chapter focuses on reading as thinking detailing the ways teachers can nurture strategic readers readers who not only deeply understand the printed materials they encounter in school but who also bring these cognitive strategies to their reading of film art music and their experience of the world The book also shares new research studies that validate the principles and activities of best practice teaching along with lists of recommended materials that support each of the seven methods Unique in the field Teaching the Best Practice Way speaks to all teachers K 12 with stories examples and practical classroom materials for the teachers of all children This is the book for teachers schools and districts that believe the big ideas about teaching really do cross all grade levels and subject areas Education professors will also find this an ideal resource for use in methods courses

Inquiring Into the Common Core Nancy Fichtman Dana, Jamey Bolton Burns, Rachel Wolkenhauer, 2013-06-25 Common Core implementation begins with asking the right questions While the Common Core couldn't be clearer about what to teach they never quite tackle how to teach That's what makes Inquiring into the Common Core such an essential resource It offers teachers an inquiry based professional development model for achieving greater understanding of the standards themselves then determining best ways to realize desired outcomes Posing questions to stimulate action and higher level insight teachers and students engage in a parallel process in service of the very same Common Core goals The book is their guide providing Tools to systematically study teaching effectiveness while adapting to new standards Classroom ready student inquiry techniques and strategies to apply within Common Core's framework Real life inquiry implementation examples from a high need high poverty school
