Budget 2013 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Treasury Committee,2013-04-22 The Treasury Committee s report on Budget 2013 focuses on macroeconomy the public finances monetary policy taxation departmental spending housing energy policy premature disclosure of budget information Parliamentary timing The report contains 46 conclusions and recommendations Particular attention is paid to the Help to Buy housing policy which is considered a work in progress which may have unintended consequences and may not help first time buyers The Committee poses a number of questions for the Chancellor on the policy Overall if the Government s priority was housing supply its housing measures should have concentrated there On energy it is unclear which Government Department is in the lead for energy policy and this lack of clarity must be addressed The changes to the monetary policy remit announced by the Chancellor at the time of Budget 2013

create uncertainty Tax complexity and instability remain of considerable concern The Committee will monitor whether the Government anti avoidance measures succeed in generating the revenue predicted of them In addition the Committee invited comments from three accounting bodies on how Budget 2013 meets the Committee s tax policy principles basic fairness supporting growth and encouraging competition certainty including simplicity stability practicality and coherence

Economic and fiscal outlook March 2011 Office for Budget Responsibility,2011-03-23 The Office for Budget Responsibility was established to provide independent and authoritative analysis of the UK s public finances Part of this role includes producing the official economic and fiscal forecasts This report sets out forecasts for the period to 2015 16 The report also assesses whether the Government is on course to meet the medium term fiscal objectives and presents preliminary observations on the long run sustainability of the public finances Since the November 2010 outlook the key economic developments have been an unexpected fall in UK GDP in the final quarter of 2010 a rise in world oil prices and higher than expected UK inflation The labour market has performed as expected with unemployment rising The OBR endorse all but one of the costings for the tax and spending measures set out in Budget 2011 HC 836 ISBN 9780102971033 as reasonable central estimates though there are significant uncertainties around a number of them The central forecast for economic growth in 2011 is revised down from 2.1 to 1.7 per cent On the fiscal outlook OBR forecast that public sector net borrowing will decline steadily as share of national income but more slowly than forecast in November The Government set itself two medium term fiscal targets to balance the cyclically adjusted current budget by the end of a rolling five year period and to see public sector debt falling in 2015 16 Examining performance against these targets the OBR believe there is a greater than 50 per cent probability of meeting both targets under current policy
