

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

Memorandum September 2013 English Paper 2:

Dangerous Allies Malcolm Fraser, Cain Roberts, 2016-04-12 Australia has always been reliant on great and powerful friends for its sense of national security and for direction on its foreign policy first on the British Empire and now on the United States Australia has actively pursued a policy of strategic dependence believing that making a grand bargain with a powerful ally was the best policy to ensure its security and prosperity Dangerous Allies examines Australia's history of strategic dependence and questions the continuation of this position It argues that international circumstances in the world and in the Western Pacific especially now make such a policy highly questionable Since the fall of the Soviet Union the United States has also changed dramatically making it less relevant to Australia and a less appropriate ally on which Australia should rely Malcolm Fraser argues that Australia should adopt a much greater degree of independence in foreign policy and that we should no longer merely follow other nations into wars of no direct interest to Australia or Australia's security He argues for an end to strategic dependence and for the timely establishment of a truly independent Australia

Modernisation in EU-Russian Relations: Past, Present and Future Maxine David, Tatiana Romanova, 2017-10-02 Written as EU Russia relations began their swift decline as a result of the Ukrainian crisis this book examines the nature of these two actors relationship in respect of their Partnership for Modernisation The contributing authors look at modernisation through different lenses applying varying methodologies delivering historical analysis economic analysis levels of analysis debate which brings along transnational transgovernmental and intergovernmental relations and interrelations between the EU and its member states discourse analysis new institutionalism as well as policy analysis The authors each identify the importance of modernisation for Russia demonstrating why despite the current state of relations between Moscow and Brussels modernisation remains relevant for EU Russian relations At the same time the plurality of the chapters shows the complexity of the relationship that will have to be taken into account in order to overcome the current crisis and construct sustainable and mutually beneficial relations

Brazil's Emerging Role in Global Governance M. Fraundorfer, 2015-02-11 The author examines Brazil's emerging role as an important actor in various sectors of global governance By exploring how Brazil's exercise of power developed over the last decade in the sectors of health food security and bioenergy this book sheds light on the power strategies of an emerging country from the global south China as a Twenty-First Century Naval Power Michael A

McDevitt, 2020-10-15 Xi Jinping has made his ambitions for the People's Liberation Army PLA perfectly clear there is no mystery what he wants first that China should become a great maritime power and secondly that the PLA become a world class armed force by 2050 He wants this latter objective to be largely completed by 2035 China as a Twenty First Century Naval Power focuses on China's navy and how it is being transformed to satisfy the world class goal Beginning with an exploration of why China is seeking to become such a major maritime power author Michael McDevitt first explores the strategic rationale behind Xi's two objectives China's reliance on foreign trade and overseas interests such as China's Belt and Road strategy In turn this has created concerns within the senior levels of China's military about the vulnerability of its overseas interests and maritime life lines is a major theme McDevitt dubs this China's sea lane anxiety and traces how this has required the PLA Navy to evolve from a near seas focused navy to one that has global reach a blue water navy He details how quickly this transformation has taken place thanks to a patient step by step approach and abundant funding The more than 10 years of anti piracy patrols in the far reaches of the Indian Ocean has acted as a learning curve accelerator to blue water status McDevitt then explores the PLA Navy's role in the South China Sea and the Indian Ocean He provides a detailed assessment of what the PLAN will be expected to do if Beijing chooses to attack Taiwan potentially triggering combat with America's first responders in East Asia especially the U S Seventh Fleet and U S Fifth Air Force He conducts a close exploration of how the PLA Navy fits into China's campaign plan aimed at keeping reinforcing U S forces at arm's length what the Pentagon calls anti access and area denial A2 AD if war has broken out over Taiwan or because of attacks on U S allies and friends that live in the shadow of China McDevitt does not know how Xi defines world class but the evidence from the past 15 years of building a blue water force has already made the PLA Navy the second largest globally capable navy in the world This book concludes with a forecast of what Xi's vision of a world class navy might look like in the next fifteen years when the 2035 deadline is reached

Good for Society Martin Parsons, 2020-02-20 Good for Society Christian Values and Conservative Politics In Good for Society Martin Parsons has written a book well worthy of its sub title Christian Values and Conservative Politics Good for Society is a robust defence of both our Christian heritage and the Conservative Party Rt Hon Lord Tebbit CH former Chairman of the Conservative Party Secretary of State for Trade and Industry and Secretary of State for Employment This is a magnificent detailed and authoritative examination of the relevance of Christian teaching to today's Conservative Party Even when you do not agree with a deduction you are still challenged Rt Hon Ann Widdecombe former Conservative MP and Shadow Home Secretary Dr Parsons brings together expertise in politics careful biblical study research in Islam and experience of life under the Taliban in Afghanistan He mounts a powerful case for identifying Christian values and view of the world in the development of the laws liberties and institutions of the English speaking peoples He also identifies these values in the approaches of Conservative politics and politicians These must be recovered in order to develop a narrative and values to address the threat of Islamism which seeks to impose sharia both subtly and violently Liberal secularists who might disagree with Dr Parsons need to demonstrate a more convincing case than he presents on all fronts Canon Dr Chris Sugden Oxford Centre for Religion and Public Life Christians in many parts of the world who are influenced by progressivism reject Conservative values on social policy by default They uncritically assume that big government redistribution of wealth and other leftist policies are closer to the teaching of Scripture while capitalism wealth creation individualism and other Conservative values represent greed oppression and injustice Dr Martin Parsons turns this myth on its head Exploring the great philosophical and historical traditions of Conservatism and expounding the teaching of the Bible he demonstrates that Conservatism is firmly rooted in the Judeo Christian worldview Dr Parsons has written the definitive book on Conservatism and Christianity I wish this book were written years ago It would have saved me from years of wandering in the desert of progressivism Rev Dr Jules Gomes theologian and political journalist Parliamentary Debates, House of the People India.
