Qatar 1975/76-2019 Anthony Axon, Susan Hewitt, 2020-09-25 The fourth in this series the Contemporary Archive of the Islamic World CAIW this title draws on the resources of Cambridge based World of Information which since 1975 has followed the politics and economics of the region Qatar s documented history begins in the mid 19th Century Its location established it as having close if differing links to Bahrain Kuwait and Saudi Arabia Notionally under Ottoman rule Qatar did not become a de facto protectorate of Great Britain until some time after the end of the Ottoman empire The discovery of oil in Qatar happened later than was the case with its neighbours However the discovery of substantial oil deposits and later of enormous gas reserves changed Qatar beyond recognition allowing it to claim in the 1980s that its inhabitants were the richest people on earth. Still a semi feudal monarchy it gained full independence in 1971 but was initially considered to be the least developed state in the Gulf. By the 21st century many close neighbours felt that in a number of respects Qatar was becoming an unreliable partner. To the extent that in 2017 a number of its fellow Gulf Cooperation Council GCC members as well as other states notably Egypt broke off diplomatic relations.

External Powers and the Gulf Monarchies Jonathan Fulton, Li-Chen Sim, 2018-09-03. The Gulf monarchies have been generally perceived as status quo actors reliant on the USA for their security but in response to regional events particularly the Arab Spring of 2011 they are pursuing more activist foreign policies which has allowed other international powers to play a larger role in regional affairs. This book analyses the changing dynamic in this region with expert contributors providing original empirical case studies that examine the relations between the Gulf monarchies and extra regional powers including the USA, Russia, China, India, Brazil, Turkey, Japan, South Korea, France and the United Kingdom. At the theoretical level these case studies explore the extent to which different international relations and international political economy theories explain change in these relationships as the regional political and security environment shifts. Focusing on how and why external powers approach their relationships with the Gulf monarchies, contributors ask what motivates external powers to pursue deeper involvement in an unstable region that has seen three major conflicts in the past 40 years. Addressing an under analysed yet important topic, the volume will appeal to scholars in the fields of international relations and international political economy as well as area specialists on the Gulf and those working on the foreign policy issues of the extra regional powers studied.
