

A Roman fresco depicting a religious ceremony. In the center, a woman in a white stola and palla stands before a large, dark, rectangular altar or table. She is pouring liquid from a vessel into a large, ornate bowl or basin on the altar. To her left, a group of women in similar Roman attire are gathered, some holding up small objects, possibly offerings or votive tablets. To her right, another woman stands, also in Roman dress. In the background, a large, dark, rectangular structure, possibly a doorway or a large vase, is visible. The scene is set outdoors, with a palm tree on the left and a rocky landscape. The fresco is painted on a wall with visible cracks and some fading of the paint.
