Leader Politik Shqiperi:

Disputed Memory Tea Sindbæk Andersen, Barbara Törnquist-Plewa, 2016-06-20 The world wars genocides and extremist ideologies of the 20th century are remembered very differently across Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe resulting sometimes in fierce memory disputes This book investigates the complexity and contention of the layers of memory of the troubled 20th century in the region Written by an international group of scholars from a diversity of disciplines the chapters approach memory disputes in methodologically innovative ways studying representations and negotiations of disputed pasts in different media including monuments museum exhibitions individual and political discourse and electronic social media Analyzing memory disputes in various local national and transnational contexts the chapters demonstrate the political power and social impact of painful and disputed memories The book brings new insights into current memory disputes in Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe It contributes to the understanding of processes of memory transmission and negotiation across borders and cultures in Europe emphasizing the interconnectedness of memory with emotions mediation and politics

Isolationist States in an Interdependent World Helga Turku, 2016-05-06 States that withdraw from the international system provide insight into an unexplored area of international relations in terms of rationality self interest power politics cooperation and alliances Indeed isolationism in an interdependent state system goes against the logic of modern society and state systems Using historical comparative and inductive analysis Helga Turku explains why states may choose to isolate themselves both domestically and internationally using comparative historical analysis to flesh out isolationism as a concept and in practice The book examines extreme forms of self imposed domestic and international isolation in an interdependent international system noting the effects on both the immediate interests of a ruling regime and the long term national interests of the state and the populace

The Heir Matt Palumbo, 2025-10-28 As Seen on Steve Bannon's War Room The George Soros empire is now the Alex Soros empire and the son is more radical than the father Like father like son In June 2023 it was finally made official Alex Soros would be taking over the empire started by his father who has contributed 32 billion of his own money to the cause As the news broke one question echoed around the world What will the future of Soros's influence look like The Heir investigates the transformation underway This is not the end of Soros backed radicalism it's just the beginning

The Nationalization Paradox Arjan Shahini, 2024-06-04 The study illustrates the paradoxical relationship between nationalization and internationalization in the case of Albanian higher education It demonstrates how global transformational processes and foreign policy have impacted the international dimension of higher education as a nation building institution The analysis considers the effect of foreign policy and the interactions between the state the university and the cultural elite The study applies the concept of causal mechanisms as an analytical and narrative device Foreign policy analysis is framed within an international patronage regime The international dimension is defined in terms of international exchanges policy borrowing and policy discourse The higher education policy areas it investigates are education policy governance academic management curriculum and academic mobility The interdisciplinary analytical and methodological approaches applied here were drawn from the transnational history of education and comparative historical analysis Communist Regimes in Eastern Europe Richard Felix Staar,1988 Klan ,2005 Sachkatalog Universität Kiel. Institut für Weltwirtschaft. Bibliothek,1968
