

MONROE COLLEGE
JUMPSTART PROGRAM ESSAY

Students' challenge is to develop their confidence as public speakers, as well as their interpersonal skills. This group grows up in a culture that is very much oriented towards the individual. Students must learn to work in groups, to share their ideas, and to listen to others. They must also learn to work with people who are different from them. This is a challenge for students who are used to working in a culture where the individual is the focus.
