Beam Piper,2015-10-30 It was hard to judge Jeff Rand's age from his appearance he was certainly over thirty and considerably under fifty He looked hard and fit like a man who could be a serviceable friend or a particularly unpleasant enemy Women instinctively suspected that he would make a most satisfying lover One might have taken him for a successful lawyer he had studied law years ago or a military officer in mufti he still had a Reserve colonelcy and used the title occasionally to impress people who he thought needed impressing or a prosperous businessman as he usually thought of himself Most of all he looked like King Charles II of England anachronistically clad in a Brooks Brothers suit At the moment he was looking rather like King Charles II being bothered by one of his mistresses who wanted a peerage for her husband But Mrs Fleming he was expostulating There surely must be somebody else After all you'll have to admit that this isn't the sort of work this agency handles. The would-be client released a series of smoke rings and watched them float up toward the air outlet at the office ceiling. It spoke well for Rand's ability to subordinate esthetic to business considerations that he was trying to give her a courteous and humane brush-off. She made even the Petty and Varga girls seem credible. Her color scheme was blue and gold, blue eyes and a blue tailored outfit that would have looked severe on a less curvate figure and a charmingly absurd little blue hat perched on a mass of golden hair. If Rand had been Charles II she could have walked out of there with a duchess's coronet and Nell Gwyn would have been back selling oranges. Why isn't it she countered. Your door's marked.
