REFRAIN

Voici le Corps et le Sang du Seigneur,
la coupe du salut et le pain de la vie.
Dieu immortel se donne en nourriture
pour que nous ayons la vie éternelle

1

Au moment de passer vers le Père
le Seigneur prit du pain et du vin,
pour que soit accompli le mystère
qui apaise à jamais notre faim.

2

Dieu se livre lui-même en partage,
par amour pour son peuple affamé.
Il nous comble de son héritage
afin que nous soyons rassasiés.

3

C'est la foi qui nous fait reconnaître,
dans ce pain et ce vin consacrés,
la présence de Dieu notre maître
le Seigneur Jésus ressuscité.

4

Que nos langues sans cesse proclament,
la merveille que Dieu fait pour nous.
Aujourd'hui il allume une flamme,

France and the South Pacific since 1940 Robert Aldrich, 1993-09-01 For some Tahiti New Caledonia and Wallis and Futuna are idyllic tropical islands with a French flavour while for others they represent continuing French colonialism thwarted independence movements and nuclear testing This book looks at the realities of the French territories in Oceania and the former Franco British condominium of the New Hebrides now Vanuatu as well as changing French policy in the region This study is based on published sources as well as archival material and interviews and is a sequel to the highly praised The French Presence in the South Pacific 1842-1940 Journal of the Royal United Service Institution, 1894

Library of the Surgeon General's Office (Washington)., 1873 The War Guilt Problem and the Ligue des droits de l'homme, 1914-1944 Norman Ingram, 2019-01-31 The War Guilt Problem and the Ligue des droits de l'homme is a significant new volume from Norman Ingram addressing the history of the Ligue des droits de l'homme LDH an organisation founded in 1898 at the height of the Dreyfus Affair and which lay at the very centre of French Republican politics in the era of the two world wars Ingram posits that the Ligue's inability to resolve the question of war guilt from the Great War was what led to its decline by 1937 well before the Nazi invasion of May 1940 As well as developing our understanding of how the issue of war origins and war guilt transfixed the LDH from 1914 down to the Second World War this volume also explores the aetiology of French pacifism expanding on the differences between French and Anglo American pacifism It argues that from 1916 onwards one can see a principled dissent from the Union sacrée war effort that occurred within mainstream French Republicanism and not on the syndicalist or anarchist fringes Based on substantial research in a large number of French archives primarily in the papers of the LDH which were repatriated to France from the former Soviet Union in late 2001 but also on considerable new research in the German archives the book proposes a new explanatory model to help us understand some of the choices made in Vichy France moving beyond the usual triptych of collaboration resistance or accommodation The Poetry of Protest Under Franco Eleanor Wright, 1986 Published by Boydell Brewer Inc Catalogue of the Library of the Surgeon General's Office, U. S. Army, 1873 The Athenaeum, 1870 The Modern Schoolman, 1966 Author Catalog Library of the Surgeon-General's Office (U.S.), 1873 A Delicate Choreography David Sabeau, 2023-10-24 The origins of the incest taboo have puzzled many of the most influential minds of the West from Plutarch to St Augustine St Thomas Aquinas Martin Luther David Hume Lewis Henry Morgan Sigmund Freud Emile Durkheim Edward Westermarck and Claude Lévi Strauss This book puts the discussion of incest on a new foundation It is the first attempt to thoroughly examine the rich literature from philosophical theological and legal treatises to psychological and biological genetic studies to a wide variety of popular cultural media over a long period of time The book offers a detailed examination of discursive and figurative representations of incest during five selected periods from 1600 to the present The incest discussion for each period is complemented with a presentation of dominant kinship structures and changes without arguing for causal relations Part I deals with the legacy of ecclesiastical marriage prohibitions of the Middle Ages Historians dealing with the Reformation have wondered about the political and social implications of theological debates about the incest rules the Enlightenment opted for sociological considerations of the household and a new anthropology based on the passions Baroque discourse focused upon sexual relations among kin by marriage while Enlightenment and Romantic discussions worried the intimacy of siblings The first section of Part II deals with the six decades around 1900 during which European and American cultures obsessed about the sexuality of women Almost everyone concurred in the idea that mother made the family what it was that she configured the household kept the lines of kinship vibrant and stood at the threshold as stern gatekeeper and many thought that she managed these tasks through her sexuality and an eroticized relationship with sons Another story line taken up in the section Intermezzo this one about the physical and mental consequences of inbreeding appeared after 1850 To what extent do close kin marriages pose risks for progeny At its center lay the incest problematic now restated Is avoidance of kin genetically programmed Do all cultures know about risks of consanguinity As for the twenty first century evolutionary and genetic assumptions are challenged by a living world population containing roughly one billion offspring of cousin marriages Part III deals with one of the perhaps most remarkable reconfigurations of Western kinship in the aftermath of World War I The shift from an endogamous to an exogamous alliance system centered on the nuclear family An historical anomaly this family form began to dissolve almost as soon as it came together and in the process shifted the focus of incest concerns to a new pairing father and daughter By the 1970s when the father daughter problematic swept all other considerations of incest aside that relationship had come to be modeled for the most part around power and its abusive potential As for incest its representations in the last three decades of the twentieth century no longer focused on biologically damaged progeny but rather on power abuses in the nuclear family sexual abuse By the mid 1990s Western culture at least partly redirected its gaze away from father and daughter towards siblings especially towards brothers and sisters and the sexual boundaries and erotics of their relationships Correspondingly siblings became a model organism for psychotherapy evolutionary biology and the science of genetics
