

Leadership Theory - Essay Sample Essay

Introduction

Leadership is a description of the art process that involves motivating a group of individuals working towards a common objective. In the business world, this can mean leading colleagues and workers with the aim of fulfilling organizational needs. There are various approaches to leadership adopted by different people depending on their perspective or viewpoint. Amongst one of the most successful leaders in the modern business field is Grant Cordone. Grant is a self-made millionaire, entrepreneur, established sales training, and media expert, Cardone university CEO, company consultant for organizations such as Google and Toyota (Cordone, 2016). In addition, Grant privately owns five companies that generate revenues exceeding one million dollars annually. The U.S.-based personality is has authored various sales and business books that include "If You're Not First, You're Last; it became the best seller of the New York Times (Cordone, 2016).

The self-made millionaire is popular for his bold and straight-shooting viewpoints on leadership. According to his presentations through speeches and reports, the entrepreneur uses a full throttle and entertaining style to motivate and educate workers on how to make success their duty, responsibility, and obligation (Cordone, 2016). Gary Vaynerchuk is another successful leader whose approach regarding leadership has played a key part in his success in entrepreneurship (Vaynerchuk, 201) behaving to Gary, the most effective leadership strategy involves practicing a model behavior similar to the one you expect from one's respective followers (Vaynerchuk, 2019). The paper focuses on leaders Grant Cordone and Gary Vaynerchuk using their viewpoints on leadership to evaluate leadership theories.

Grant Cordone Leadership Theory

As a leader, Grant works with teams and individuals to identify change needed to create visions that guide the change through inspiration and execution of required change by obligation (Cordone, 2016). The approach is associated with the transformational leadership theory that involves leaders that influence and inspire their followers to exploit their full potential and perform beyond their capabilities (Rolfe, 2011). To install empowerment in a team, it is essential that the respective leader adopt transformational leadership attributes that are consistently effective for motivational purposes (Rolfe, 2011). These attributes include charisma to install ambition, inspirational motivation to install vision, Intellectual stimulation to install innovation, and individualized consideration to ensure maximum support of followers. However, according to Cordone, it is vital that followers focus on individual commitment and progression towards the goal of interest (Cordone, 2016). In addition, the approach enhances the ability to find a purpose, common ground and enhance the work ethic required to fulfill plans at an organizational and individual level (Rolfe, 2011).

One of the essays addressing leadership by Grant Cordone was derived from one of his inspirational speeches available on multiple media platforms (Cordone, 2016). According to the report, a good leader is supposed to prepare staff members to follow and react in a favorable way (Cordone, 2016). To be an effective leader, one needs to have undoubted self-esteem. Having self-confidence enables
