Brunzell, Judith Howard, 2023-09-08      Religion in Schools R. Murray Thomas, 2006 Many Americans may believe that religion in the schools is a controversial subject only in the United States But around the world the subject has gained widespread notoriety media coverage and attention from governing bodies school administrations and individuals In France conflict erupted when a young girl wore a headscarf to her public school the government there got involved to reassert the rule that no outward display of religion will be tolerated In India a panel was appointed to remove Hindu religious beliefs from high school textbooks In Pakistan the government passed a law to make the curriculum of Islamic religious schools more secular in its approach Here in the United States debates abound regarding the Pledge of Allegiance the posting of the Ten Commandments prayer in school and other familiar arguments But why do these controversies exist What prompts them Why do particular conflicts arise and what attempts are made to deal with them How have solutions fared How are the controversies in one country similar to or different from those in another In Religion in Schools R Murray Thomas uses case examples from twelve countries around the world covering all regions of the world and all the major religions to examine and answer these questions He reveals the complexities of the conflicts and shows what brought them about For example in France the conflicts often arise out of that nation's desire to remain intensely secular Using case examples and applying a uniform approach to analyzing each country's particular focus on religion and education he is able to show what these conflicts have in common how well solutions have worked and what may lie ahead      Special Hearing California.
