Muslims in Western Politics Abdulkader H. Sinno, 2009 Islam as a social and political force in Western liberal democracies

The Political Psychology of Globalization Catarina Kinnvall, Paul Nesbitt-Larking, 2011-08-01 In an increasingly globalized world there are new economic strategic cultural and political forces at work The Political Psychology of Globalization Muslims in the West explores how these shifts and shocks have influenced the way in which Muslim minorities in western countries form their identities as political actors Catarina Kinnvall and Paul Nesbitt Larking uncover three identity strategies adopted by Muslims in the West retreatism essentialism and engagement Six western countries Canada Denmark France the Netherlands Sweden and the United Kingdom serve as places for exploration of the emergence of these Muslim political identities These countries are discussed in light of their colonial histories patterns of immigration and citizenship regimes Although retreatism essentialism and engagement occur in Muslim citizens of each of the six western nations discussed in this book the countries that are best able to balance individual and community rights are most successful in promoting the politics of engagement In contrast regimes that focus on anti terrorist legislation and discourses and support majority political cultures that are exclusionary also promote retreatism and essentialist identity strategies in both minority and majority communities The authors discuss the importance of a climate of engagement that is based on recognition dialogue deep multiculturalism a new global and cosmopolitical consciousness and a sense of political identity that transcends national boundaries and regimes

Citizen Islam Zeyno Baran, 2011-07-21 Since September 11 Western governments have legitimized and empowered nonviolent Islamists as representatives of Islam for all Muslims in the West an approach that has worried Muslim moderates Citizen Islam addresses the implications of this approach The book opens with an overview of the theology and history of Islam to show that violence and intolerance are not fundamental aspects of the religion It then explains the growth of Islamism in Europe and in the United States before suggesting that both are finally beginning to recognize the threat posed by nonviolent Islamists Lastly it outlines steps that Western and Muslims leaders can take to strengthen moderate Islam and counter the threat of Islamism Written by Zeyno Baran a Turkish born Muslim Citizen Islam sheds a sharp light on Muslim communities in the West It concludes that there is much that Western governments can still do to reverse the spread of Islamism But they must act quickly The Right to Nationality Status of Non-Muslim

Muslims in Western Politics Abdulkader H. Sinno,2009 Looking closely at relations between Muslims and their host countries Abdulkader H Sinno and an international group of scholars examine questions of political representation identity politics civil liberties immigration and security issues While many have problematized Muslims in the West this volume takes a unique stance by viewing Muslims as a normative and even positive influence in Western politics Squarely political and transatlantic in scope the essays in this collected work focus on Islam and Muslim citizens in Europe and the Americas since 9 11 the European bombings and the recent riots in France Main topics include Muslim political participation and activism perceptions about Islam and politics Western attitudes about Muslim visibility in the political arena radicalization of Muslims in an age of apparent shrinking of civil liberties and personal security in politically uneasy times Muslim Volunteering in the West Mario Peucker,Merve Reyhan Kayikci,2019-10-17 This edited volume explores various facets of Muslims civic engagement in Western post secular societies fundamentally challenging simplistic boundaries between Islamic ethical conduct and liberal democratic norms and practice Bringing together scholars from sociology anthropology and Islamic theology the collection offers sound theoretical and empirical elaborations on the complex ways in which Islamic piety principles and norms interact with and shape Muslims everyday practice of volunteering as a performance of active citizenship in liberal societies The contributions cover diverse manifestations of Muslim volunteering in North America Europe and Australia from environmentalism to mental health volunteering and critically examine the national and global socio political context within which certain forms of Muslims civic engagement are viewed with skepticism and suspicion It will be of use to students and scholars across sociology political science community studies and Islamic studies with a focus on migrant integration diaspora studies and inter ethnic relations Western Muslims and the Future of Islam Tariq

Ramadan,2004 Begins by offering a reading of Islamic sources interpreting them for a Western context The author demonstrates how an understanding of universal Islamic principles can open the door to integration into Western societies He then shows how these principles can be put to practical use WOMEN EDUCATION IN MODERN PERSPECTIVE

Dr. Savita Mishra,Ms. Reshma Khatun,2017-07-26 There has been a long history of addressing women s rights and much progress has been made in securing it across the world in recent decades However important gaps remain and women s realities are constantly changing with new manifestations of discrimination against them which emerges regularly Some groups of women face additional forms of discrimination based on their age ethnicity nationality religion health status marital status education disability and socio economic status among other grounds The Muslim World Book Review ,2002

Human Rights in the Muslim World Maimul Ahsan Khan, 2003 Human Rights in the Muslim World presents a comprehensive study of Islam the main tenets of Islamic Law and Fundamentalism It offers a unique insider's view of human rights rule of law and fundamentalist trends in the Muslim World It discusses the complex and problematic relationship between the institutionalization of Islamic doctrine or religious practice and the modern universal human rights doctrine as well as the opinions Islamists hold towards democratization and the implementation of human rights in Muslim countries Human Rights in the Muslim World focuses on the dichotomies of sociopolitical economic and cultural life in Muslim statehood and the military build up within the nation building process Khan explores where the main breeding grounds for Muslim fundamentalist forces are and how such forces operate and are governed In exploring such issues this book presents an ongoing discussion and analysis of Muslim fundamentalism that puts atheistic anti religious secular ideologies and political movements in religious and spiritual perspective This book is a serious scholarly attempt at finding objective answers to many questions regarding Islam This study is strong on historical religious and philosophical analysis and the author's discussion of the Medina Charter of 622 is quite illuminating Basically Khan presents an excellent account of the development of Islamic law This fascinating book is a great read to examine before attempting to delve into contemporary human rights cases in the Muslim world Summing up Highly Recommended CHOICE Magazine November 2003 Is There Still a West? William Anthony Hay, Harvey Sicherman, 2007 Scholarly essay collection that considers whether the West is still a major force in international affairs or whether we face a new world of competing states and shifting alliances In proposing possible counterterrorism strategies to define a shared Western security policy they offer an alternative to neoconservative and liberal viewpoints Provided by publisher Narrative of a Journey to Musardu, the Capital of the Western Mandingoes Anderson, 1870
