

Lagat's fresh storm

Kenya's Olympic champion runner, Paul Tergat, is facing a fresh storm of controversy after being accused of doping. The 34-year-old athlete, who won the 10,000m at the Sydney Olympics, is alleged to have used a banned substance to improve his performance. The Kenya Athletics Federation has launched an investigation into the claims, which were first made public by a rival athlete. Tergat has denied the allegations and insists on his clean record.
