Crime Fiction Stephen Knight, 2018-07-10 Australian crime fiction has grown from the country's origins as an 18th century English prison colony. Early stories focused on escaped convicts becoming heroic bush rangers or how the system mistreated those who were wrongfully convicted. Later came thrillers about wealthy free settlers and lawless gold seekers and urban crime fiction including Fergus Hume's 1887 international best seller The Mystery of a Hansom Cab set in Melbourne. The 1980s saw a surge of private eye thrillers popular in a society skeptical of police. Twenty first century authors have focused on policemen and increasingly policewomen and finally indigenous crime narratives. The author explores in detail this rich but little known national subgenre.

Simkin, 1996 This work is the only comprehensive guide to sequels in English with over 84 000 works by 12 500 authors in 17 000 sequences Fiction Index, 1953 The Armchair Detective, 1967 Bury Them Deep James Oswald, 2020-09-03

When a member of the Police Scotland team fails to clock in for work concern for her whereabouts is immediate and the discovery of her burnt out car in remote woodland to the south of Edinburgh sets off a desperate search for the missing woman. Meanwhile DCI Tony McLean and the team are preparing for a major anti corruption operation one which may raise the ire of more than a few powerful people in the city. Is Anya Renfrew's disappearance a coincidence or related to the case? McLean's investigations suggest that perhaps that Anya isn't the first woman to have mysteriously vanished in these ancient hills. Once again McLean can't shake the feeling that there is a far greater evil at work here.

A Bitter Pill Kevin Corrigan, 2025-07-07 This is another fantastic eclectic mix of short stories about life's rich pageant where a vista of interesting characters become involved in murder politics family rivalry and space travel. Most of the pieces have been previously performed as original plays or sketches some notably at the Edinburgh Fringe and are here reproduced in short story form. In the first story A Bitter Pill enjoy the funny exchanges in between the ex army colonel and the hotel receptionist and the distraught ailing businessman as the colonel is convinced the hotel is a cover for battalion headquarters. A Trip to the Sperm Bank is a rather risqué story of indeed a trip to a sperm bank and a misunderstanding that has a somewhat shocking denouement. Like the very best of short stories and in keeping with Kevin's previous publication Do Angels Have Birthdays there is a delicious unexpected denouement to compete each story. Three of the stories Who Poisoned the Poisoner Who Killed the Nastiest Man on Earth and Murder on the Bounty are original murder mysteries are an interesting test of the reader's detective qualities. Enjoy them all.
