The Master's New Governess ELIZA. REDGOLD, 2020-04-30 A new position for the governess As mistress of Pendragon Hall Unfairly dismissed from her previous position her reputation ruined governess Maud Wilmot is forced to take on a new identity When she feels an ever growing attraction to her new employer Cornish railway entrepreneur Dominic Jago Maud longs to reveal the truth But doing so could end their fledgling romance before it s truly begun The Governess Noor Il Huda, 2015-08-19 At thirty four John Lockwood was the best landlord in Berkshire for despite his absences his tenants remained happy he was the richest the crops and investments both yielded annual benefits he was the sole heir to his aunt Lady Cavendish's estate his advice was sought by peers and friends and political entrants he was at the prime of his life a robust man with few creases in the face and he had children to carry his name forward Still he wanted to burn everything down He wanted none of it It repulsed him the abundance of it all the gratitude of tenants the praise of gentry the wealth he could not shake off no matter how many creditors he juggled He hated it all His good fortune gave him a headache His children gave him no joy and he hated himself for it He felt like a disease He didn t wish to be anywhere for more than a few seconds He wanted an escape All The Time Jane was the perfect wife and daughter till a single act of selfishness took it all away from her I cannot imagine a sentence more severe than a person limited not by his or her own abilities but by the opinions and expectations of others And having been made to organize in such a way comes the remuneration but no penance or escape And when their paths cross the fiery odd relationship guides each towards their inner truths You make it seem like the cross was yours to bear alone do you really think you are brave Let me tell you who the brave one is it s each and every member of your family who didn t slap you silly the first time you went awry the first time you brushed your children aside for merriment It's your children Mr Lockwood they are the courageous ones Not you you are nothing but a coward And all for what For your own selfish needs and whims your own desire to be alone and free Free from pain was it Or do you really want to leave a debauched legacy Well are you free Mr Lockwood I don't see any shackles on you Are you free from the pain and happy truly happy No passion is great enough for you to lose sight of what s your duty and the right thing to do For that is not passion but madness You re mad Mr Lockwood completely utterly mad Could they have lived their lives any different Is there some choice in the kind of fate one has or is it all a lost cause A movingly passionate and introspective character analysis of lonely people living through emotional abuse grief and guilt A STORY WHERE TRUE WORTH HAS NO REGRETS AND TAKES NO DETOURS This book is not a short easy read but it is well worth your time You will find the story to be captivating in spite of its simplicity You will cry with the characters learn about human nature and speculate on the meaning of life This is an excellent book David Burnett Kindle Book Review This isn t a romance novel It s an exploration of some very real very difficult social situations and weaves several subplots into the main one that follows Jane on her road to redemption and self actualization It s designed to be thought about internalized and talked about Alot to take on in a single story but I think it is done very well A wonderful story Patricia Hamill Author and Blogger In her first novel Noorilhuda is ambitious and appealing With Jane Adams she has created a nineteenth century character who is a twenty first century woman Helga Stipa Madland Professor Emerita University of Oklahoma The author obviously excels at characterization and historical immersion only for passionate fans of historical fiction K A Krisko Author of The Stolen Trilogy
