The Fractured Family Elizabeth L. MacNabb,1993 The Fractured Family brings together an unusual and provocative combination of feminist literary criticism and social psychology as well as traditional and non traditional psychoanalytic thought It tells the story of Simone de Beauvoir s 1953 feminist manifesto The Second Sex which has functioned as a kind of unwilling mother to later feminist works Suggesting that the feminist family has developed in a dysfunctional patriarchal environment this book explores ways in which real mother daughter relationship parallel those of feminist critical texts In doing so The Fractured Family proposes that Beauvoir s The Second Sex is perhaps the most significant feminist work of the contemporary era

Criminological Perspectives on Race and Crime Shaun L. Gabbidon,2007 This is an examination of criminological perspectives that have been used to contextualise criminal behaviour among racial ethnic minorities Starting with a review of select biblical doctrines this text also examines an array of biological sociological cultural conflict social control and feminist perspectives

The strange case of female "cross-voyeurs"? Carola Katharina Bauer,2011 The Economic Status of Women Under Capitalism Janice Peterson,Douglas M. Brown,1994 The Economic Status of Women under Capitalism shows how institutional economics can be used to analyze the economic oppression of women and to promote progressive social and economic change The book is divided into three parts Part one Exploring Connections Institutionalism and Feminism examines the relationship between institutionalist economics and feminist theory Part two Extending our Analysis offers a critique of feminist and institutionalist theory and suggests ways to extend these approaches to be more inclusive and progressive The final part Examining the Issues of Gender assesses the economic status of women in several different countries the United States the former Soviet Union and Japan providing a real life context for the theoretical issues raised in Parts One and Two Working from a radical institutionalist perspective the contributors to The Economic Status of Women under Capitalism share a concern over the economic status of women and a belief that the dominant approaches to economic analysis are limited in their ability to analyse the subordination of women and prescribe policy responses This important book will be welcomed as a significant contribution in its own right as well as providing impetus for future debate

Journal of Feminist Studies in Religion ,1995 Rhetorical Women Hildy Miller,Lillian Bridwell-Bowles,2005 Just as women in Greek myth are cast in roles ranging from the helpless and innocent to the manipulative and powerful so women throughout the history of rhetoric have represented themselves as fulfilling roles that range from dependents or enablers of male authority to autonomous agents acting on their own These essays examine the tactics women have employed in self representation and the feminist rhetorics that result Contributors examine both past and present practices highlighting correspondences between them and the ways those practices have varied succeeded or failed Essays in part 1 consider how women historically have found ways to speak and write while negotiating the limitations of their positions as women as well as their spiritual class and ethnic roles Essays in part 2 study the formal genres strategies and techniques female rhetoricians have used and the essays of part 3 consider the contemporary challenges faced by women rhetors in a pluralistic world and the strategies and genres they have inherited and transformed representations by criss crossing time and selecting particular issues and or figures to focus on Rhetorical Women is unique in that it juxtaposes several concerns in order to spotlight the strategies of the women rhetors it considers Catholic and Feminist Mary J.
