Life Sciences March 2014 Cluster Paper:

Curiosity And Passion For Science And Art Uwe B Sleytr, 2016-07-04 This book describes the accomplishments of a curious and imaginative scientist and his endeavours to translate or even to extrapolate scientific insights into the world of art The science section in this volume concerns studies on S layers a very important class of proteins found on the surface of numerous Bacteria and nearly all Archaea S layer proteins are one of the most abundant biopolymers on our planet and assemble into the simplest type of biological membrane Moreover they are unique building blocks and patterning elements for the production of complex supramolecular structures and nanoscale devices in nanobiotechnology molecular nanotechnology synthetic biology biomimetics and nanomedicine In the second part of this book the author goes on to passionately describe how his scientific activities stimulated his art work which in particular concerns the visualization of results and the potential of synthetic biology and evolutionary events induced by genetic manipulations Most importantly the engagement in art allowed him to leave the rather curtailed canon of science and reach a mental state of unlimited freedom of thoughts Mask like sculptures are used as examples to visualize the intersection between science and art and in particular the unpredictability and mystery of scientific visions

Places of Invention Arthur P. Molella, Anna Karvellas, 2015-09-15 The companion book to an upcoming museum exhibition of the same name Places of Invention seeks to answer timely questions about the nature of invention and innovation What is it about some places that sparks invention and innovation Is it simply being at the right place at the right time or is it more than that How does place whether physical social or cultural support constrain and shape innovation Why does invention flourish in one spot but struggle in another even very similar location In short Why there Why then Places of Invention frames current and historic conversation on the relationship between place and creativity citing extensive scholarship in the area and two decades of investigation and study from the National Museum of American History's Lemelson Center for the Study of Invention and Innovation The book is built around six place case studies Hartford CT late 1800s Hollywood CA 1930s Medical Alley MN 1950s Bronx NY 1970s Silicon Valley CA 1970s 1980s and Fort Collins CO 2010s Interspersed with these case studies are dispatches from three learning labs detailing Smithsonian Affiliate museums work using Places of Invention as a model for documenting local invention and innovation Written by exhibition curators each part of the book focuses on the central thesis that invention is everywhere and fueled by unique combinations of creative people ready resources and inspiring surroundings Like the locations it explores Places of Invention shows how the history of invention can be a transformative lens for understanding local history and cultivating creativity on scales of place ranging from the personal to the national and beyond

Beyond Technonationalism Kathryn C. Iбата-Arens, 2019-04-16 The biomedical industry which includes biopharmaceuticals genomics and stem cell therapies and medical devices is among the fastest growing worldwide While it has been an economic development target of many national governments Asia is currently on track to reach the epicenter of this growth What accounts for the rapid and sustained economic growth of biomedical in Asia To answer this question Kathryn Iбата Arens integrates global and national data with original fieldwork to present a conceptual framework that considers how national governments have managed key factors like innovative capacity government policy and firm level strategies Taking China India Japan and Singapore in turn she compares each country s underlying competitive advantages What emerges is an argument that countries pursuing networked technonationalism NTN effectively upgrade their capacity for innovation and encourage entrepreneurial activity in targeted industries In contrast to countries that engage in classic technonationalism like Japan s developmental state approach networked technonationalists are global minded to outside markets while remaining nationalistic within the domestic economy By bringing together aggregate data at the global and national level with original fieldwork and drawing on rich cases Iбата Arens telegraphs implications for innovation policy and entrepreneurship strategy in Asia and beyond

The Capacity to Innovate Sarah Giest, 2021-04-07

In The Capacity to Innovate Sarah Giest provides insight into the collaborative and absorptive capacities needed to provide public support to local innovation through cluster organizations The book offers a detailed view of the vertical multi level and horizontal dynamics in clusters and cluster policy and addresses how they are managed and supported Using the biotechnology field as an example Giest highlights challenges in the collaborative efforts of public bodies private companies and research institutes to establish a successful ecosystem of innovation in this sector The book argues that cluster policy in collaboration with cluster organizations should focus on absorptive and collaborative capacity elements missing in the cluster context in order to improve performance Currently governments operate at different levels from the local to the supranational in order to support clusters and cluster policies are often pursued alongside other programs leading to uncoordinated efforts and ineffective cluster strategies The Capacity to Innovate advocates for a coordinated effort by government and cluster organizations to support capacity elements lacking within the specific cluster context Industrial Development Report United Nations Publications,2016-01-14 This report looks at how technology and innovation achieves inclusive and sustainable industrial development ISID Its main finding is that ISID is feasible and technology can simultaneously serve all three dimensions of sustainability including economic social and environmental Rapid inclusive and sustainable industrialization can happen more frequently provided that policymakers firmly steer the industrialization process with opportune policies and avoid past mistakes In some cases the spread of technology has not materialized in concrete growth opportunities because of the lack of technological capabilities Innovation needs to be supported by interventions strengthening the process from invention to adoption as capabilities are developed and high tech manufacturing sectors are created seeing higher rates of sustainable growth The State of African Cities, 2014 United Nations Publications,2015-09-10 The African continent is currently in the midst of simultaneously unfolding and highly significant demographic economic technological environmental urban and socio political transitions Africa s economic performance is promising with booming cities supporting growing middle classes and creating sizable consumer markets Despite significant overall growth the continent continues to suffer under very rapid urban growth accompanied by massive urban poverty and many other social problems These seem to indicate that the development trajectories followed by African nations since post independence may not be able to deliver on the aspirations of broad based human development and prosperity for all This report therefore argues for a bold re imagining of prevailing models in order to steer the ongoing transitions towards greater sustainability based on a thorough review of all available options That is especially the case since the already daunting urban challenges in Africa are now being exacerbated by the new vulnerabilities and threats associated with climate and environmental change Canadian Journal of Physics ,2015 Corporate Power, Corruption & the Destruction of the World's Forests ,1996 Science, Technology and Innovation for Nepal's Graduation to Developing Country Status ,2016 Documentation Abstracts ,1984 TMIS Technical Meetings Index World Meetings Information Center,1978 Yearbook of International Organizations 2013-2014 (Volumes 1a-1b) Union Of International Associations,Union of International Associations,2013-06-21 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Urbanization and Development ,2016 The analysis of urban development of the past twenty years presented in this maiden edition of the World Cities Report shows with compelling evidence that there are new forms of collaboration and cooperation planning governance finance and learning that can sustain positive change The Report unequivocally demonstrates that the current urbanization model is unsustainable in many respects It conveys a clear message that the pattern of urbanization needs to change in order to better respond to the challenges of our time to address issues such as inequality climate change informality insecurity and the
