Men In The Sun And Other Palestinian Stories:

Men in the Sun Ghassan Kanafani, 2025-10-07 Three Palestinian men embark on a brutal and treacherous odyssey across the Iraqi desert to Kuwait not for liberation but material betterment Under the indifferent brutality of border bureaucracy and the blank aggression of the sun things grow increasingly oppressive Breezily conversational and disarmingly lyrical this short novel delivers a shuddering dose of horror Collected here alongside the titular novella are six short stories including the timeless resonant Letter from Gaza Kanafani's first published work Men in the Sun, and Other Palestinian Stories Ghassan Kanafani, 1978 Desiring Arabs Joseph A. Massad, 2008-09-15 Sexual desire has long played a key role in Western judgments about the value of Arab civilization In the past Westerners viewed the Arab world as licentious and Western intolerance of sex led them to brand Arabs as decadent but as Western society became more sexually open the supposedly prudish Arabs soon became viewed as backward Rather than focusing exclusively on how these views developed in the West in Desiring Arabs Joseph A Massad reveals the history of how Arabs represented their own sexual desires To this aim he assembles a massive and diverse compendium of Arabic writing from the nineteenth century to the present in order to chart the changes in Arab sexual attitudes and their links to Arab notions of cultural heritage and civilization A work of impressive scope and erudition Massad's chronicle of both the history and modern permutations of the debate over representations of sexual desires and practices in the Arab world is a crucial addition to our understanding of a frequently oversimplified and vilified culture A pioneering work on a very timely yet frustratingly neglected topic I know of no other study that can even begin to compare with the detail and scope of this work Khaled El Rouayheb Middle East Report In Desiring Arabs Edward Said's disciple Joseph A Massad corroborates his mentor's thesis that orientalist writing was racist and dehumanizing Massad brilliantly goes on to trace the legacy of this racist internalized orientalist discourse up to the present Financial Times States of Emergency Stephen Morton, 2013-01-01 States of Emergency examines how violent anticolonial struggles and the legal military and political techniques employed by colonial governments to contain them have been imagined in both literary and legal narratives Through a series of case studies Stephen Morton considers how colonial states of emergency have been defined and represented in the contexts of Ireland India South Africa Algeria Kenya and Israel Palestine concluding with a compelling assessment of the continuities between colonial states of emergency and the war on terror in Iraq Afghanistan and Pakistan Literature with A White Helmet Lava Asaad, 2019-08-22 Literature with A White Helmet explores issues of refugee writers contemporary works of fiction and nonfiction on the refugee's body and experience the biopolitics of refugees and disputes over the ethicality of representing refugees by writers and human rights activists The book relies on a broad selection of texts by authors who in one way or another have experienced displacement witnessed it imagined it or co written about it The Making of the Modern Refugee Peter Gatrell, 2013-09-12 The Making of the Modern Refugee proposes a new approach to a fundamental aspect of twentieth century history by bringing the causes consequences and meanings of global population displacement within a single frame Its broad chronological and geographical coverage extending from Europe and the Middle East to South Asia South East Asia and sub Saharan Africa makes it possible to compare crises and how they were addressed Wars revolutions and state formation are invoked as the main causal explanations of displacement and are considered alongside the emergence of a twentieth century refugee regime linking governmental practices professional expertise and humanitarian relief efforts How and for whom did refugees become a problem for organizations such as the League of Nations and UNHCR and for non governmental organizations NGOs What solutions were entertained and implemented and why What were the implications for refugees These questions invite us to consider how refugees engaged with the myriad ramifications of enforced migration and thus the significance that they attached to the places they left behind to their journeys and destinations in short how refugees helped interpreted and fashioned their own history The Making of the Modern Refugee rests upon scholarship from several disciplines and draws upon oral testimony eye witness accounts and cultural production as well as extensive unpublished source material

Melancholy Acts Nouri Gana, 2023-08-01 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE How do the literatures and cultures of oppressed societies survive and flourish in spite of the overdetermining conditions of precarity and injustice of which they are a product and against which they protest Might the symptom of oppression become simultaneously the agent of its critique Melancholy Acts offers richly nuanced reflections on these questions through a series of wide ranging engagements with Arab thought literature and film in the aftermath of the 1948 dispossession of Palestinians and the 1967 military defeat of Arab armies Melancholy Acts offers a psychoaffective theory of cultural production that arises out of the disjunction between political impoverishment and cultural resistance to colonial and neoliberal oppression Such a theory allows the author to trace the melancholy disposition of Arabic literary and filmic productions and to discern the precarious rhetorical modes of their critical intervention in a culture that is continually strained to its breaking point Across six chapters Melancholy Acts reads with rigor and sensitivity contentious topics of Arab contemporaneity such as secular modernity and manhood Arab nationalism and leftism literary and artistic commitment Islamism and martyrdom The book tracks the melancholy politics that inform the literary and cultural projects of a multitude of Arab novelists Ghassan Kanafani and Naguib Mahfouz poets and playwrights Mahmoud Darwish Nizar Qabbani and Saadallah Wannous filmmakers Nouri Bouzid Moufida Tlatli Youssef Chahine and Hany Abu Assad alongside the work of such intellectuals as Hussein Muruwwa Malek Bennabi Karima Lazali George Tarabishi and Fethi Benslama from within the Arab world as well as such non Arab thinkers as Freud Lacan Adorno Fanon Spivak Butler and i ek Melancholy Acts charts a fresh and bold new approach to Arabic and comparative literature that combines in interlaced simultaneity a high sensitivity to local idioms as they swerve between symptom and critique with nuanced knowledge of the geopolitics of theory and psychoanalysis Conflicts Liron Mor, 2024-01-02 Liron Mor s book queries what conflict means in the context of Palestine Israel Conflict has long been seen as singular and primary as an original sin that necessitates the state and underwrites politics This book problematizes this universal notion of conflict revealing its colonial implications and proposing that conflicts are always politically constructed after the fact and are thus to be understood in their various specific forms The book explores sites of poetic and political strife in Palestine Israel by combining a comparative study of Hebrew and Arabic literature with political and literary theory Mor leverages an archive that ranges from the 1930s to the present from prose and poetry to film and television to challenge the conception of the Palestinian Israeli context as a conflict delineating the colonial history of this concept and showing its inadequacy to Palestine Israel Instead Mor articulates locally specific modes of theorizing the antagonisms and mediations colonial technologies and anticolonial practices that make up the fabric of this site The book thus offers five figurative conflictual concepts that are derived from the poetics of the works conflict judgment ishtib k leva im disorienting dilemmas ikhtif anti colonial disappearance o mediating law and inqis m hostile severance In so doing Conflicts aims to generate a historically and geographically situated mode of theory making which defies the separation between the conceptual and the poetic

Reclaiming Humanity in Palestinian Hunger Strikes Ashjan Ajour,2021-12-14 2022 Winner of the Palestine Book Awards Rooted in feminist ethnography and decolonial feminist theory this book explores the subjectivity of Palestinian hunger strikers in Israeli prisons as shaped by resistance Ashjan Ajour examines how these prisoners use their bodies in anti colonial resistance what determines this mode of radical struggle the meanings they ascribe to their actions and how they constitute their subjectivity while undergoing extreme bodily pain and starvation These hunger strikes which embody decolonisation and liberation politics frame the post Oslo period in the wake of the decline of the national struggle against settler colonialism and the fragmentation of the Palestinian movement Providing narrative and analytical insights into embodied resistance and tracing the formation of revolutionary subjectivity the book sheds light on the participants views of the hunger strike as they move beyond customary understandings of the political into the realm of the spiritualisation of struggle Drawing on Foucault s conception of the technologies of the self Fanon s writings on anti colonial violence and Badiou s militant philosophy Ajour problematises these concepts from the vantage point of the Palestinian hunger strike

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1979 Historical Dictionary of Palestine Nafez Nazzal,Laila A. Nazzal,1997-05-08 Ruled by wave after wave of conquerors through the centuries Palestine is a land that is synonymous to many people with one of the three great monotheistic religions of the world but it has searched for decades for a stable identity as a nation state From the revolt against the Turks in World War I the Balfour Declaration the U N Partition and the Arab Israeli War to today s episodic riots police actions and seesaw summit meetings Palestine has suffered almost every form of strife The Historical Dictionary of Palestine is a handy fact filled guide that brings together in one place coverage of the individuals events factions and institutions that have had a historical political or social significance in the shaping of the nascent Palestinian State Entries purposely focus on Palestinian in the Occupied Territories and the autonomous areas of Jericho and the Gaza Strip but omit those Palestinians in Israel proper or those in exile A detailed introduction and chronology delineate the tumultuous history of this developing nation state and the main text of the Dictionary offers biographies of the individuals involved Several maps detail Palestine s shifting boundaries a comprehensive bibliography is offered to aid further research and appendixes list its Declaration of Independence and Declaration of Principles It is certain to be an invaluable reference tool for all researchers on the Middle East      Breathing Sun-drenched Horizons Nathalie Khankan, 2009
