Focus On: 100 Most Popular Australian Films Wikipedia contributors, Abject Eroticism in Northern Renaissance Art Yvonne Owens, 2020-10-29 Hans Baldung Grien the most famous apprentice and close friend of German artist Albrecht Dürer was known for his unique and highly eroticised images of witches In paintings and woodcut prints he gave powerful visual expression to late medieval tropes and stereotypes such as the poison maiden venomous virgin the Fall of Man death and the maiden and other motifs and eschatological themes which mingled abject and erotic qualities in the female body Yvonne Owens reads these images against the humanist intellectual milieu of Renaissance Germany showing how classical and medieval medicine and natural philosophy interpreted female anatomy as toxic defective and dangerously beguiling She reveals how Hans Baldung exploited this radical polarity to create moralising and titillating portrayals of how monstrous female sexuality victimised men and brought them low Furthermore these images issued from and contributed to the contemporary understanding of witchcraft as a heresy that stemmed from natural feminine defect a concept derived from Aristotle Offering new and provocative interpretations of Hans Baldung's iconic witchcraft imagery this book is essential reading for historians of art culture and gender relations in the late medieval and early modern periods Edinburgh Companion to Science Fiction and the Medical Humanities Donna McCormack, Anna McFarlane, Gavin Miller, 2025-03-31 The medical humanities are becoming increasingly important as their first wave is interrogated by a critical approach that aims to uncover the wider possibilities of the field In conversation with this debate this volume explores the ways in which science fiction studies can contribute to such discussions Science fiction challenges techno-optimism and offers a non-realist avenue for the expression of illness experience Science fiction also estranges its readers from their societies and the medical possibilities inherent in those societies inviting consideration of how medicine may be complicit with or opposed to other structures of power By engaging these concerns this Companion volume offers a unique viewpoint on the power of the future to shape the present Making Religion, 2016-03-11 Discursive approaches to the study of religion have received a lot of attention recently Making Religion brings together leading theorists in the field who explore the theoretical and practical dimensions of the analysis of religious discourse The volume provides an overview of current debates in the field extends and improves upon contemporary theories and methodologies and contributes to the discipline more broadly by flagging the importance of this emerging field of research The combination of theoretical reflection and practical application of discourse analysis as a tool to study religion opens up new perspectives for future research Contributors are Helge Rørdam Stephanie Garling Adrian Hermann Titus Hjelm Mitsutoshi Horii George Ioannides Jay Johnston Reiner Keller Jens Kirschen Marcus Moberg Heinrich Wilhelm Schfer Leif Hagen Seibert Adrián Tovar Simoncic Kocku von Stuckrad Teemu Taira and Frans Wijzen Migrant, Refugee, Smuggler, Saviour Tinti Peter, Tuesday Reitano, 2018-03-15 As millions of people seek passage to Europe in order to escape conflict repression poverty and natural catastrophe their movements are enabled and encouraged by ruthless professional criminal networks that earn billions of pounds from this insidious new trade Migrant Refugee Smuggler Saviour investigates one of the most under examined aspects of the great migration crisis of our time to discover who profits from it The human suffering that results extends well beyond the Mediterranean the smugglers routes cross the Sahara penetrate deep into the Balkans and reach hidden corners of Europe s capitals But smugglers are also revered as saviours by many of those they move delivering them to a safer place and a better life Disconcertingly it is often criminals who help the most desperate when the international system turns them away This book is a measured attempt born of years of research and reporting in the field to better understand how people smuggling networks function the ways in which they have evolved and their long term impact on both migration and global organised crime

Producing Masculinity Michele White, 2019-02-08 Thoughtful witty and illuminating in this book Michele White explores the ways normative masculinity is associated with computers and the Internet and is a commonly enacted online gender practice Through close readings and a series of case studies that range from wedding forums to men s makeup video tutorials White considers the ways masculinities are structured through people s collaborations and contestations over the establishment of empowered positions including debates about such key terms and positions as the nice guy nerd bro and groom She asserts that cultural notions of masculinity are reliant on figurations of women and femininity and explores cultural conceptions of masculinity and the association of normative white heterosexual masculinity with men and women A counterpart to her earlier book Producing Women White has crafted an excellent primer for scholars of gender media and Internet studies
