Dead Man's Wire Pat Breese ,2025-12-09 When desperation meets determination a man takes justice into his own hands literally On February 8 1977 Indianapolis mortgage broker Richard Hall became the unwilling participant in one of the most dramatic hostage crises in American history His captor Tony Kiritsis a struggling real estate developer who believed he d been swindled out of his property and driven to financial ruin by corrupt lending practices For 63 harrowing hours Kiritsis held Hall at gunpoint with a sawed off shotgun wired directly to his captive s neck a dead man s wire that would detonate if Kiritsis was shot or lost consciousness What followed was a media circus that captivated the nation as Kiritsis demanded airtime to expose what he claimed was systematic mortgage fraud and corporate greed that destroyed ordinary Americans Dead Man s Wire goes beyond the sensational headlines to examine the complex man behind the crime Was Tony Kiritsis a dangerous criminal or a desperate victim pushed to his breaking point Through meticulous research and compelling narrative this book explores the mortgage corruption of the 1970s the psychology of desperation and the thin line between vigilante justice and terrorism Drawing from court records news archives and eyewitness accounts this gripping true story reveals how one man s stand against the system became a cautionary tale about financial predation mental health and the American Dream gone wrong A story of desperation corruption and a nation watching in real time

Story Work/Story Play Mary LaMont,2023-05-02 A central assumption of narrative spirituality is that the act of retelling the story of episodes of our lives can help us better see the larger Guiding Story that God dreams for us When I can see my Guiding Story more clearly I am better able to handle crisis and transition and better able to see my true purpose Story Work Story Play lays out a four door method of spirituality that invites participants to explore their Guiding Story through four doors that correspond to the four parts of any story a main character a problem to solve the power needed to solve it and the action taken by the main character The chapter for each of these four doors provides theological psychological and scriptural foundations for the narrative method and includes up to ten to fifteen story work story play exercises the reader can use to practice the method Each chapter also includes profile stories of real people who have discovered layers of their own Guiding Stories The book ends each chapter with a Guided Visualization The book s final chapter explains how members of a narrative circle can use the narrative spirituality tools of this book to discern each one s own unique Guiding Story
