The main characters and their relation with the American Dream Anne-Karen Fischer,2018-05-01 Seminar paper from the year 2008 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade 2 0 University of Constance course Proseminar language English abstract Many literary works deal with the positive and negative aspects of the American dream One of these literary works which deals with the negative aspects of the American dream is Tortilla Flat by John Steinbeck The book is about a group of societal marginal figures which do not have any interest in becoming rich and famous and they take their life as it comes For them friendship and freedom are more important than wealth and therefore they represent the counterpart of the American dream But there are also characters in the book which believe in the American dream and who strive for wealth and reputation That is why Tortilla Flat provides a good contrast of the proponents and opponents of the American dream In this research paper I will analyse the main characters of Tortilla Flat and compare them to the American dream First of all I will explain what the American dream really is Afterwards I will give a short summary of the plot of the book and an overview of the historical background Then I will show the western frontier in the book which is also part of the American dream After that I will analyse the main characters of Tortilla Flat Women Torelli and the paisanos Finally I will give a short conclusion Poverty in John Steinbeck's The Pearl Louise Hawker,2012-01-12 This informative volume examines John Steinbeck's life and work with a specific look at key ideas related to The Pearl The book discusses a variety of topics including whether Kino chooses enslavement to wealth in order to escape poverty and whether the townspeople have a parasitic relationship with the poor The book also explores contemporary perspectives on poverty such as the changing views of the term culture of poverty and the relationship between Western materialism and spiritual depression Writing and Growing Timothy Horan,2022-07-11 In this book Dr Timothy Horan presents an original and highly effective writing program whose major goal is to transform high school students into accomplished writers and mature young adults This writing program is innovative rigorous and engaging and was designed with high school students in mind This volume contains a total of twenty original writing projects that represent creative and innovative interpretations of Common Core Writing Standards These projects focus on the worlds of contemporary secondary students exploring such topics as technology literature goals for the future and potential careers Each assignment in this book is full and complete and includes a reproducible outline that presents the assignment to students in a simplified graphical format As students progress through this program they will encounter engaging writing projects that foster growth and anticipate the changes occurring in students lives during this time of development and transition It will also prepare students for the rigors of writing in college career and the unwritten future that awaits all of them Finally Dr Horan issues a call for every secondary school in the United States to create and implement courses singularly devoted to the craft of writing and this book contains the curriculum for that course The Critical Response to John Steinbeck's The Grapes of Wrath Barbara A. Heavilin,2000-06-30 Records the critical reception of The Grapes of Wrath from its initial publication in 1939 to the recent editions of the 1990s through reviews previously published articles and original pieces Writing Research Papers James D. Lester,1996 Includes appendix index John Steinbeck's Nonfiction Revisited Warren G. French,1996 Although best known for his fiction John Steinbeck also enjoyed a long career as a non fiction writer The author of this study of his non fiction works asserts that they contain much autobiographical material from which it is possible to construct a full account of his life In this text the author uses Steinbeck s non fiction writings as a basis for judging his relationship to the non fiction novels and works of a new journalism which began to appear after World War II After the Grapes of Wrath Donald V. Coers,Paul Ruffin,Robert J. DeMott,1995 Traditionally the critical reputation of Nobel Prize winning American novelist John Steinbeck 1902 1968 has rested on his achievements of the 1930s especially In Dubious Battle 1936 Of Mice and Men 1937 The Long Valley 1938 and of course The Grapes of Wrath 1939 one of the most powerful and arguable on of the greatest American novels of this century Book reviewers and academic critics often turned antagonistic toward Steinbeck when he no longer produced work with the sweeping reach and social consciousness of The Grapes of Wrath He was accused of selling out or co opting his talent when in fact the inordinate public success of Grapes and especially its attendant notoriety had caused a backlash for Steinbeck As a result he became self conscious about his own ability and suspicious of that clumsy vehicle the novel The very act of researching and writing Grapes which occupied him fully for several years and which he had already conceived as his final book on proletarian themes changed him drastically No longer willing to be the chronicler of Depression era subjects Steinbeck went afield to find new roots new sources new forms For example in the six years following the publication of Grapes Steinbeck completed a suit of love poems a full length novel bastardized by Alfred Hitchcock in his 1943 film Lifeboat a nonfiction scientific book Sea of Cortez A Leisurely Journal of Travel and Research with Edward F Ricketts a documentary film The Forgotten Village a documentary book to help the war effort Bombs Away The Story of a Bomber Team a series of articles he wrote as a war correspondent for the New York Herald Tribune later collected as Once There Was a War and two novels The Moon Is Down and Cannery Row Steinbeck came to define himself less as a novelist and more as a man of letters a restless experimenter with form and subject matter and a prophetic postmodernist whose key subject for the rest of his career was the dilemma of individual choice and ethical consciousness Thus Steinbeck s later fiction from The Moon Is Down 1942 through The Winter of Our Discontent 1962 and his later nonfiction from Sea of Cortez 1941 through Travels with Charley 1962 and America and

Americans 1966 often shows a different set of stylistic thematic and philosophical bearings from his earlier work and underscores his dramatic shift toward individual thinking A full appreciation of Steinbeck s mid career metamorphosis and consequently of his later achievement requires a corresponding shift in critical approach a departure from the traditional New Critical norms Instead of marginalizing these works all the contributors to this volume agree that Steinbeck s later publications merit indeed demand closer scrutiny Written especially for this collection in honor of Professor Tetsumaro Hayashi the distinguished founder and editor in chief of the Steinbeck Quarterly on his retirement from Ball State University and his move to Kwassui Women s College in Nagasaki Japan these essays explore new ways of addressing Steinbeck s later work and career and include forays into subjects as diverse as ethnicity and music They range from treatment of his post structuralist use of language in Sea of Cortez and his involvement as a speech writer for Franklin Delano Roosevelt s reelection bid in 1944 to the influence of Charles Darwin s theories of sexual selection in The Wayward Bus his revision of the myth of Cain in The Winter of Our Discontent and his employment of Arthurian quest values in his last book America and Americans For this group of critics which includes respected veteran Steinbeck scholars Robert DeMott John Ditsky Mimi Gladstein Cliff Lewis Robert Morsberger Susan Shillinglaw and Roy Simmonds as well as talented new voices Debra Barker Kevin Hearle Michael Meyer Brian Railsback Eiko Shiraga and Geralyn Strecker The Moon is Down and The Wayward Bus loom as significant works in the post 1930s re evaluation two essays each appear on these works The book also includes Donald Coers s interview with the writer s widow Elaine Steinbeck the first of its kind ever published After The Grapes of Wrath opens with eminent Americanist Warren French s appreciation of Professor Hayashi s distinguished career and his influence in Steinbeck studies a bibliography of Hayashi s major publication concludes this honorary gathering
