Summaries, 2016-08-19 Fates and Furies by Lauren Groff Summary on the outside it seems perfect The narration is a spectacularly written dichotomy of Lotto and Mathilde Satterwhite where each individual has a perspective that can be compared as night and day The lives of Lotto and Mathilde before marriage were both drastically different with Lotto shiningly happy and prosperous and Mathilde's one of grief secrecy and malevolence Who is pulling the strings Lauren Groff weaves a tale of mystery and dread despite the seemingly shining lives of our happy couple The moral of the story tells us that not everything is what it seems even to those involved There is a role reversal in which Mathilde acts as a condescending shielding wife with an agenda unknown to Lotto Revenge is on the menu for this woman and the story essentially suggests that a marriage so happy and pure is only that of one woman's scheming One can be quite the outsider of their own marriage given the challenge of an individual to be secretive and unyielding Fates and Furies will shock you at every turn There is no mystery too small and no revelation too large By the end of the novel nothing will be as happy and blissful as they originally seemed and the tale of Lotto and Mathilde will be one that shocks It is certainly a book that cannot be underestimated and is sure to burn its image into the minds of the unprepared It is a must read for bibliophiles and casual readers alike Detailed overview of the book Most valuable lessons and information Key Takeaways and Analysis Take action today and grab this best selling book for a limited time discount of only 6.99 Written by Elite Summaries Please note This is a detailed summary and analysis of the book and not the original book keyword Fates and Furies Fates and Furies book Lauren Groff Fates and Furies Lauren Groff Fates and Furies paperback Fates and Furies kindle Fates and Furies by Lauren Groff fates and furries
