Mathematics Teaching and Professional Learning in sub-Sahara Africa Kakoma Luneta, 2021-12-09 The book represents a crop of wide ranging research conducted by renown scholars in sub Sahara Africa revolving around mathematics teaching and professional development programs for mathematics teachers The research based proposals and actual how to conduct professional development initiatives that enhance effective mathematics instruction are rooted in teacher input and informed by learners errors and misconceptions The book provides a comprehensive snapshot on mathematics teaching learning and effective professional development programmes for mathematics teachers in sub Sahara Africa It is the only research output that advances and disseminates issues of mathematics education and research in the region with input from South Africa Kenya Rwanda Uganda Malawi Namibia Lesotho Ethiopia and Zimbabwe X-kit Fet G10 Mathematics , Annual Report Mpumalanga (South Africa). Department of Education, 2017 Annual Performance Plan Mpumalanga (South Africa). Department of Education, 2016 EFA Global Monitoring Report - 2013-2014 - Teaching and Learning Achieving quality for all UNESCO, 2014-02-04 The 2013 2014 Education for All Global Monitoring Report shows that a lack of attention to education quality and a failure to reach the marginalized have contributed to a learning crisis that needs urgent attention Worldwide 250 million children many of them from disadvantaged backgrounds are not learning the basics Teaching and Learning Achieving Quality for All describes how policy makers can support and sustain a quality education system for all children regardless of background by providing the best teachers The Report also documents global progress in achieving Education for All goals and provides lessons for setting a new education agenda post 2015 In addition the Report identifies that insufficient financing is hindering advances in education South Africa Survey , 2009 The Condition of Primary and Secondary Education in Mpumalanga (1995/1996) Adél Hartley, 1998 South African Schooling: The Enigma of Inequality Nic Spaull, Jonathan D. Jansen, 2019-11-05 This volume brings together many of South Africa s leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90 10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett Harvard University There is much wisdom in this collection from many of the best education analysts in South Africa No surprise that they conclude that without a large and sustained expansion in well trained teachers early childhood education and adequate school resources South Africa will continue to sacrifice its people s future to maintaining the privileges of the few Prof Martin Carnoy Stanford University Altogether one can derive from this very valuable volume if not an exact blueprint for the future then certainly at least a crucial and evidence based itinerary for the next few steps Dr Luis Crouch RTI South African Statistics ,2002

Psychosocial Pathways Towards Reinventing the South African University Sabrina Liccardo,2020-11-02 This book proposes a conceptual empirical framework for exploring forms of continuity and change along psychosocial pathways in South African universities It illustrates how the psychosocial pathways are grounded in the symbolic narratives and knowledges of young scientists engineers and architects all interlocutors in the research from which this book is based Alala Mamoratwa Welile Odirile Kaiya Amirah Takalani Nosakhele Naila Ambani Khanyisile Itumeleng Ethwasa and Kgnaya provide collective standpoints in the multiplicities within and between the lived lives and told stories of young Black South African women in Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics STEM fields In doing so this compelling work advances possibilities for demythologising scientific endeavour as a white male achievement and shifting knowledge communities across gendered racialised class and national divides This book presents an innovative narrative methodology utilising the myth of the Minotaur to examine the state of the university at the heart of the hierarchical labyrinth in post apartheid South Africa Throughout the work the author wrestles with and self reflexively highlights her own positionality as a white middle class South African woman to examine how this affects the production of this research in ways which serve to preserve the colonial knowledge system With the rise of the Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall student movement in South Africa demanding for the fall of institutionalised racial hierarchies the author uses the cover image of narrative formations in the spirit of exploration to think with and through undulating networked forms that could possibly forge new psychosocial pathways towards decolonising and reinventing South African universities This work offers a unique conceptual and methodological resource for students and scholars of psychosocial and narrative theory as well as those who are concerned about the politics of higher education both in South Africa and in other contexts around the world The Condition of Primary and Secondary Education in the Western Cape (1995/1996) Adél Hartley,1998 Self-directed multimodal learning in
